Next week, we will take up the collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, rural terrain and a lack of ministers are obstacles to practicing their faith. Your support to the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation as well as other programs to help share our faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. My dear parishioners,

As we return to Ordinary Time today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This is the feast which is commemorated each year following Pentecost Sunday and the close of the Easter season. Today we are invited to contemplate the mystery of God, the Lord who has been revealed as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. In the Gospel passage from the Evangelist Matthew we hear the Lord Jesus say to the Apostles prior to His ascension that they are to go out to the entire world and preach the Gospel and baptize in the Name of the Trinity.

God is a community of persons whose unity is preserved through love. In the Epistles of Saint John we are reminded that God is love and that God is inviting us into His life of love by communion with Him. Our desire for this intimacy is expressed in our sacramental life and in the deepening of our spirituality. Our times of prayer connect us with the Lord and are the pathways which lead us into the divine life. Today's feast is our reminder that union with God is possible right now but that is up to us.

In today's Gospel the Lord Jesus commissions the Apostles for ministry. He authorizes them to act in His Name. This Sunday our hearts are filled with jubilation as we celebrate the ordination to the holy priesthood of Father Joseph Boykow and Father Mateusz Darlak. Now as priests they too have been commissioned, as were the Apostles, to invite others into communion with God – Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We pray for our two young priests and the 7 others who were also ordained this weekend with them, that the Lord God may strengthen them and bless them in their priestly ministry. We are grateful that they responded generously to the Lord's call to service in the Church. We thank their parents and family for supporting them in their vocation so that they may minister in the Name of Christ our Savior. George & Diane Boykow are our own esteemed Rockaway Family who are active in the life of the Church. However we extend a special welcome to Father Matt's parents, Wieslaw and Bozena Darlak, who traveled from Poland to be present for their son's ordination. This is their first time in the United States and to them I say, WITAMY (Welcome). I hope that you will have the opportunity to greet them this weekend or next before their return home on June 3rd.

I pray that the weather will be clear for Monday's Memorial Day Mass at the cemetery. I direct your attention to the article in the bulletin regarding Thursday night's ROSARY RALLY celebrating the Feast of the Visitation of Mary and the last day of May.

Let us remember our veterans who gave their lives in service to our country as we gather to pay them tribute on Memorial Day!!

God bless you!

Father Zig
