NEW PARISH YOUTH MINISTER

I'm happy to announce that our parish has hired a new full-time Youth Minister!

Please join me in welcoming Katie Dugan, who will start on June 1st. Katie comes to us as she completes a two-year term of ministry with the Fellowship of Catholic University Students, where she served with a team at Fairleigh Dickinson University. We're pleased to have her join our parish staff. Your first chance to meet her will be at the youth ministry booth at our carnival, June 2-6, from 6 to 10 p.m. Stop by to say hello (and get face-painting and temporary tattoos to support youth ministry!)

I'm also grateful for the fine work done by our Search Committee. We reviewed a large number of applicant resumes and conducted a series of candidate interviews over the past few months. Joining me on the committee were Irene Nayden, Andrew Monticello, Bill Konvit, Veronica Lenzi, Maureen Morrissey, Nicole Cinelli and Luke Lombardi.

PENTECOST

Paul Turner

On Pentecost we celebrate the day on which the Holy Spirit came upon the disciples in a form resembling tongues of fire, empowering them to proclaim the message that Jesus is risen from the dead. According to Acts of the Apostles (1:13-14), Mary, the apostles, and other disciples had been huddled together in an upper room after the ascension of Jesus. But on this day they went forth from that room as new people, alive in the Spirit, speaking in tongues and winning over believers by the thousands.

The Mass of Pentecost Sunday is marked by a few special features. The first reading for Saturday's Vigil Mass, for example, is taken from the Old Testament. Throughout the Easter season, all the readings come from the New Testament ~ except, of course, the responsorial psalm. Saturday's first reading foreshadows the coming of the Spirit. On Sunday the first reading comes from Acts of the Apostles, and it tells the story of Pentecost. After the second reading, everyone sings or says the Pentecost sequence, a special hymn that tells the meaning of this day.

If the priest uses Eucharistic Prayer I, he inserts a special phrase saying that this is the day on which the Holy Spirit appeared to the apostles. The Mass concludes with a double "alleluia." The deacon or priest adds the words to his dismissal, and you answer, "Thanks be to God, alleluia, alleluia." This joyful acclamation concludes the church's celebration of Easter.

The paschal candle burns throughout the Pentecost Mass, as it does for the 50 days of the Easter season. After Mass, however, it is moved from its place near the ambo to a position in the baptistry.

We will again be looking for volunteers to help run the games. In the Food Garden you will be able to enjoy a dish of pasta, heroes (sausage & peppers or meatball), Italian ices, zeppoles and many other carnival treats! We will need volunteers to help take orders, serve the food and help with set up and clean up.

Please sign up at the carnival table in the vestibule after Mass today or contact Irene Nayden at inayden@guardianangelchurch.org or call (201-327-0352). Please let us know if you can help out on any of the nights and if you have a preference for where you work, 1) Games, 2) Food, 3) Set up or clean up.

We will continue our “Food Court Sponsor” program to help offset some of the initial costs associated with the carnival. Families are invited to make a $100 donation to purchase a lawn sign in the Carnival Food Court. Signs will read:

GUARDIAN ANGEL CARNIVAL

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

Guardian Angel is a tithing parish. Biblical tithing means 10% of gross income to God. We ask half of this, or 5%, for your Parish Church. The May 17th collection was $8,598 with $5,707 from the collection basket and $2,891 from Faith Direct. Thank you for your continued generosity! Our Faith Direct enrollment code is NJ513 at www.faitbdirect.net.

WE ARE LIVING STONES

All parishioners should have received a special mailing this week about the “We Are Living Stones” campaign to benefit the Newark Archdiocese and the parish of Guardian Angel. (If you did not receive one, please contact the rectory.) We are inviting everyone’s participation in this special undertaking to help meet important long-term needs in the archdiocese and to fund hoped-for improvement projects here in our parish. HALF of all moneys now pledged will be rebated to us for our parish special needs! This four-year campaign has great potential! Next weekend and during the month of June at weekend Mass you will be hearing more about what this will mean for us. In addition, we will be displaying a rendering of the landscape architect’s proposal for the church plaza area., one of our hoped-for projects.

Religious Education

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

On this holiday weekend we remember that Memorial Day is the day we honor the memories of the armed forces members who never made it to veteran status because they were killed fighting for their country in wars, police actions, peace-keeping missions or terrorist attacks. Respect and honor for the dead, and the connection between the body that lies in the ground, awaiting resurrection, and the soul that has gone before it are very Catholic themes. Maybe you could take a moment on Monday to pray this simple prayer. "Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen."

For many years we have offered a program that we like to call Children's Church. This is a children's Liturgy of the Word that is offered during 11:30 Mass. Children are invited to participate in a child friendly environment in the vestibule of the church where the Word is proclaimed in language that is easily understood by young children. This is completely run by volunteers and during the past year many of our volunteers have moved on to other ministries and we unfortunately cut back on the number of times that we were able to offer this great program. Please consider joining a team. You would only be asked to participate 3 or 4 times during the year with a team of 2 or 3 people.

You may want to consider joining a Children's Church team next year.

Any adult can join!!!

Adults with babies who want early practice

Adults with children who can't get enough

Adults with teenagers who want to relive the sweet days

Adults with empty nests who want to fill the void

Adults with grandkids who want to stay on top of their game

Unofficial adults.... Confirmed high school or college students

You can help our K - 3rd Graders hear and understand God's Word during Mass. It is a simple but rewarding ministry... no theological degree required!! You get the readings weeks in advance so you may prepare a lesson around them. No crayons, no glue, it's a very neat and clean event!

First Eucharist banners have been removed from the church and brought to the Religious Education office for you to pick up.

Just as we conclude a busy year for Religious Education, we are preparing for our Summer Angel Wings program. This year Summer Angel Wings will meet on the following dates: June 29, 30, July 1, 2, 6, 7, 8, 9 & 10. The hours are 9:00 AM until 12:30 PM. Class lists and volunteer assignments are ready and may be picked up in the Religious Ed office during regular office hours of Monday to Thursday from 11:00 until 3:00. Remember the Religious Ed office is closed on Fridays and will be closed this Monday to observe Memorial Day.

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

Just a reminder: adults who participate in any activity involving children in the parish must attend the Protecting God's Children workshop. Guardian Angel will offer two opportunities to attend. The workshop will be offered on Wednesday, May 27th at 10:00 AM and again on Thursday June 11th at 7:00 PM. Please go to the website www.virtus.org to sign up.

Finally, the deadline for 2015/2016 registration for Religious Education was May 5. If you have not registered yet please contact the Religious Education office at 201-327-0352 or inayden@guardianangelchurch.org or jborzilleri@guardianangelchurch.org as soon as possible.

STEWARSHIP BULLETIN REFLECTIONS

May 24, 2015 - Pentecost Sunday

"There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone." - 1 Corinthians 12:4-6

By giving each of us different gifts, God made sure that the Church would have the right combination of time, talent and treasure that was needed to do His work. However, if one of us does not utilize our gifts, God's plan goes unfulfilled. Some important work is left undone.

There appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them.
