A Message from the Pastor

November 10, 2019
Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear parishioners,

In this bulletin you’ll find introductory comments from Father Robert Salm, who will be leading the parish effective November 30. I know him and believe he will be a great fit for Guardian Angel! You may notice he is being appointed “administrator” and not “pastor.” This is simply Cardinal Tobin’s policy with those who are leading a parish for the first time.

I am grateful for the joyful celebration of the Mass and reception for my farewell on October 27, and am slowly reading your cards, which fill me with joy for so many happy memories! Someone gave me a book, but I am not sure who it was so thank you!

This weekend I am away on Sunday so that I may baptize my nephew, Nicholas Charles, at my brother’s parish in southern New Jersey. I now have 11 nieces and nephews!!! I am so grateful to have my family and the chance to be with them. And may we all cherish the amazing gift of faith that starts with baptism.

I will be here only on a limited basis in November, and my last Mass here will be on Thanksgiving morning at 9 a.m. If you have the opportunity to join us then we will also be blessing bread for families to take home and share at their Thanksgiving meals.

In Christ,

Father Charlie

SOUP KITCHEN COLLECTION
The monetary collection for the Soup Kitchen is this weekend. A basket for your donations is in the vestibule of the Church. Thank you for your generosity.

ALTAR LINENS MINISTRY
Please consider becoming part of the Altar Linen Ministry! The commitment is minor, only about four times a year. The duties include washing and ironing the linens used at daily and weekend masses. A few of our participants are retiring so we are looking to add some new members. Please contact Jean Borzilleri at 201-818-1559.

CENTER FOR FOOD ACTION

Youth Ministry

- Youth Group meets Wednesday nights in the Red Barn at 7:30 to 9 PM and is open to all high school teens. We usually spend the first half hour to forty-five minutes talking about our faith and praying together. The rest of the time is time to hang out and enjoy each other’s good company, with board games or outdoor/backyard style games!

- Youth Group will be assembling College Care Packages November 13th. Donation of non-chocolate candies would be much appreciated! This event counts for Youth Group attendance for Confirmation Candidates and as an hour and a half of service for teens. Have a college student in the family? Send me an email with their name and school address!

- Confirmation Candidates: I still need more than half of your sponsor forms! Please get them in ASAP

- November 20th, Youth Group will be organizing food for the Thanksgiving Food Drive, which also counts as an hour and a half of service hours and a participation in Youth Group.

- Another service opportunity: November 23rd is also the Thanksgiving Food Delivery to the Center for Food Action. For this event we need parents who can drive the food to CFA which is in Mahwah. This counts for parent and teen hours depending on who helps of course. I will post a sign up in the coming week.

- There is no CCD nor YG November 26th or 27th.

Religious Education

- Attention Home School Families – Please check your email for important information regarding our Home School program.

- Center for Food Action (CFA) – Please consider participating in this corporal work of mercy as our parish families and children help provide food for more than 3,000 local families. As in years past, each grade will be asked to purchase one of the requested items by the CFA. Flyers will be sent home with additional information on November 12th with all RE students, grades 1-8. Home School and Angel Wings families can expect an email with details by Nov 11.

- Array of Hope – SAVE THE DATE!! Tuesday, Dec 3 from 7:30-9 Guardian Angel Church is hosting Array of Hope, a multimedia concert event filled with Faith, Hope and Love. (For Home School and Angel Wings students, this would be a wonderful (and fun) opportunity for you to fulfill one of the two OPTIONS required for these programs.)

- Children’s Church – Our next scheduled “Children’s Liturgy” will take place on Sunday, November 17 at the 11:30am Mass. In this Gospel reading, Jesus tells us something very important about the end of the world and how we can trust in Him to protect us.

Spread the Word

I used to take Jesus’ saying at the end of today's Gospel (Luke 20:38) as a proof that God was outside of time, not limited or fixed in time as we are. When he says that all are alive to God, I took it to mean that God is just as present to me in the twenty-first century as the LORD was to Abraham thousands of years before the time of Christ. But people in Jesus' era had no conception of time as a dimension. The phrase "God of the living" means that the dead are alive again in the Resurrection. Why was it easier for the Sadducees to imagine the impossible--a woman wondering who her spouse is in heaven--than to imagine the Resurrection?

Even today, some people find it easier to imagine a romantic vampire than to believe in someone rising from the dead. Think about how much money and effort go into advertising one of those vampire movies. Do we see many people put that kind of enthusiasm into their faith? Maybe that's why St. Paul prays for the word of God to "speed forward and be glorified." So how do we help the word to speed forward?

Let's take a hint from advertising. I get very annoyed with ads that go on and on about how good their product is and how you can get two for $10 (plus $15 postage and handling). I'm more likely to buy a product a friend shows me that will do something useful. Why not spread the word like that? Be "useful" for God. Offer to help someone carry in their groceries or fill out their income tax forms. Be generous with your time. Listen to someone's troubles, not with a bored look, but with concern and support. (Don't limit your generosity to friends only.) And if anyone asks why, you can tell them you are just grateful for what God has done for you. Many people out there are looking for a reason to believe in God. You could be that reason, but it won't be because you can debate the nature of time. People aren't looking to be bored by another commercial. They are looking for signs of God's love that will lead them to faith.

WEEKLY STEWARSHIP REFLECTION

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 10, 2019

“May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word.” 2 Thessalonians 2:16-17

There are two important lessons here. First, we are called to be generous with our encouragement and hope. As God shows us mercy, we must be merciful to others. Second, joy is contagious! The joy we receive from doing good works not only strengthens us, it encourages others as well. Share the joy of living your faith whenever you can.
