R&R FOR THE MUSIC MINISTER

Michael Pierce, our Music Minister, will be taking the week off to be with family and friends in New Hampshire and Maine. Enjoy!

SURVEY RESULTS

Regarding the times of another daily Mass the results are as follows:

7am – 2 votes	8:45am – 1 vote
9am – 2 votes	12noon – 3 votes
5pm – 4 votes	7pm – 5 votes

Several parishioners wished for a daily evening Mass during lent at 7pm and one person advised that the first Mass on Ash Wednesday should be held in the Church rather than the Chapel. There were many people who attend the 8:15am Mass who expressed a desire that it remain the same which it will. That was not part of the survey. This information is helpful in our yearly planning and we are evaluating these results and appreciate your participation.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Summer session begins on July 20 and runs to July 31. Grades 1-5 times, 9-12pm and grades 6-8 times, 6:30-9pm. No Friday classes for grades 6-8. Registration is closed. You should have received your child's admission ticket in the mail. If you have not, please call the office. Remember to pack a snack for your child. Parents join us on the last day of class for the closing mass, gr. 1-5 at 11 AM, gr. 6-8 at 8PM. Look for an email that contains the Parent/Student Handbook. Please sign and return with your child on the first day of classes. Contact info: 973-838-0567 or reled@olmchurch.org

WORLD MEETING OF FAMILIES

For parishioners who want to be present for the World Meeting of Families in Philly from Sept. 22-27, information is available at worldmeeting2015.org. A Pro-Life International Symposium will also take place during the Meeting on Wed. night Sept. 23 from 6 to 7:45pm in the Grand Ballroom of the Philadelphia Convention Center (where other gatherings for the WMF will also occur). Find the details at ProLifeWorldEvent.com. Eduardo Verastegui, a longtime friend of Priests for Life, and star of the film Bella, will speak and greet participants.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

Mary, Mother of the Unborn

Prayer of Fulton J. Sheen

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much
I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted, who is in danger of abortion.
Let me live...
Feel my mother's arms around me...
Feel my father's love surround me...
Be a part of God's creation...
Let me live...

“COMMISSIONED”

The work of God is not a solitary affair. Each of us has been commissioned by our baptism to continue Christ's mission in today's world. It is not our job to convince others to follow Christ, but we are called to speak, to defend and to explain Christ whenever the opportunity arises. We have the hands, feet and words that will do Christ's work. "Whoever does not listen to you, shake the dust off your feet" is Jesus's advice to us when we meet resistance. Christ tells the Apostles not to take anything other than the clothes on their backs and a walking stick. Why? Our possessions can distract, cripple and burden us from our true mission and purpose of serving others. Pope Francis says, "In order to enter into the expanse of God's horizon, find those who bear His gaze from above. Our challenge is to enter into Christ's perspective." Who was it in your life journey that taught you faith, morals, values, love, kindness, forgiveness and mercy? Who helped you to know God better? Who will you teach to know the love of Christ? Join a faith sharing or bible group. Want to complete your sacraments or become Catholic? Please call Msgr. Carroll at 973-838-6838 ext. 100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Amos 7:12-15

Amaziah (priest of Bethel) ordered Amos to leave Bethel and never prophesy there again. Amos replied that he had not been a prophet, but was a shepherd until he was called by God.

Second Reading: Ephesians 1:3-14 or 1:3-10

Paul exults God's immeasurable generosity as he recounts all the blessings that have been bestowed upon all God's people. We all became adopted children of God when we heard the message of truth Christ brought to us, and because of it, believed in him.

Gospel: Mark 6:7-13

Jesus gave the twelve disciples authority over unclean spirits and sent them out to preach and heal the sick. He advised them to bring nothing with them and to shake the dust from their feet of any town where they had not been welcomed. Jesus wanted them to understand what they would need to do in his place after his death.

EVA'S VILLAGE SUMMER CAMP

As we enter the summer months with great anticipation, we are gearing up for our summer program for the children that reside at Eva's Hope Residence. Planned activities are designed to immerse the children in educational and enriching experiences. With the hope of receiving summer camp sponsors, the planned trips for this year include a visit to the Bronx Zoo, World of Wings butterfly museum, Sahara Sam's Water Park, the Children's Museum of Manhattan, and tickets to see the Broadway musical Aladdin.

While in the care of Eva's Village, we want to ensure that our children have an educationally enriching summer, much like many of us enjoyed while growing up.

We request your consideration of becoming a sponsor for the camp activities. For more details or to secure your sponsorship contact Donna Fico, Senior Director of Program and Resource Development, at (973) 523-6220 ext. 230.
