"FINDING CHRIST"

In today's gospel, we find John the Baptist preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, which calls us to take personal action and radical change in our relationship with God. This story, which John began and which came to fruition with the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus, is now "our" story. We must die to self so that the Holy Spirit can occupy us and we can join in the work of the Lord. This is the purpose of Advent. Like our Blessed Mother, whose feast day we celebrate this week on Dec. 8th, The Immaculate Conception, we must prepare ourselves so that we also may be able to give Christ to others. You can not give what you do not have. Does Christ overflow in You? Finding Christ should be your priority during this advent; living Christ is your mission! Want to know more? Join us at RCIA every Thursday at 7pm in the Parish House. For more information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 ext. 100 or Carol Mangani, 973-283-2218.

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

First Reading: Baruch 5:1-9

Baruch tells Jerusalem to rejoice because of God's plan to bring his exiled people back to Jerusalem. He emphasizes God's power and describes his plan to lower mountains and fill gorges to make their journey easier.

Second Reading: Philippians 1:4-6, 8-11

Paul encourages the Philippians to love each other completely. He hopes that their love and understanding will continue to grow so that they are prepared for the return of Christ.

Gospel: Luke 3:1-6

Luke describes the work John the Baptist carried out to help people prepare for the birth of Jesus. Luke also discusses who was in power at the time, which helped historians to figure out the exact dates of certain events, including Jesus' birth.
