GOOD COUNSEL HOMES – DEBBIE DUHAIME

This weekend we welcome Debbie DuHaime, speaking on behalf of Good Counsel Homes at all Masses. Good Counsel operates Catholic homes for homeless pregnant women and their babies and a national toll-free help line (800-723-8331). Baby bottles will be distributed to fill to assist their valuable pro-life ministry. For more information or to donate online please go to www.goodcounselhomes.org. Also, to help spread the word LIKE Good Counsel Homes on Facebook or follow on Twitter, Pinterest or Instagram. Good Counsel also offers hope and healing for those who are suffering after abortion. Lumina, which means light, offers help for men, women and siblings who are feeling pain because of an abortion in their life or family. Confidential, compassionate help may be found for anyone at 1.877.Lumina.1 (1.877.586.4621) or at www.LuminaHope.org or www.PostAbortionHelp.org

Pastor's Gratitude: "Fr. Carroll is very grateful for all the Birthday cards and gifts commemorating his 78 years of life."

Parishioners Response: "I like our new seminarian, Carlos Vargas. I think he will be good for the parish."

MEET OUR SEMINARIAN

My name is Carlos Andres Vargas Hernandez and I am from Barranquilla, which is in the northern part of Columbia. My father is Carlos Alberto Vargas Hernandez and my mother is Luz Elena Hernandez Manes. My parents were not very spiritual however, I grew up with my grandmother who taught me how to pray the rosary. We prayed it together every day.

Growing up, my parish Church was St. Dominic where I became an altar server. This gave me the opportunity to see what priests do at Church and elsewhere. I met a couple of priests who inspired me and reinforced my vocation to become a priest. They gave me both spiritual and economic support in addition to helping me with my first year of formation in Columbia.

God, in His mysterious ways, lead me to accept a call to come to the United States. I was given a residence at St. Margaret of Scotland parish in Morristown while I studied English at Rutgers in Newark. That was a year ago last February. I never wanted to learn English because of all the rules of grammar and punctuation but Rutgers helped me to see that it wasn't as hard as I thought. I am also learning about American culture.

Recently, I was asked to leave Morristown for Kinnelon. I don't know how long I will be here but I am very happy to be in an English speaking community. It will help me perfect my English and learn about American ways. I believe it is God's will that has brought me here. Please keep me and all seminarians in the Diocese of Paterson in your prayers. I promise to remember you in mine.

On August 21st, I will enter the College Seminary of the Immaculate Conception (Saint Andrew's Hall) at Seton Hall University, South Orange, N.J. Right now, I do not know how often I will return to the parish. Time will tell.

“WILL YOU?”

In today's first reading God hears the grumbling of the Israelites and sends "Bread from Heaven" as a great sign of His love and mercy for them. Their hunger was satisfied but they squandered their chance to exchange their bad attitudes for His grace and a real "God Relationship". St. Paul tells us in the second reading that you are "created in God's way of Righteousness and Holiness of truth" when "you take off your corrupted, deceitful desires, put on the new self, renewed in the spirit and truth of Jesus". Will you? In the last line of today's gospel Jesus reveals the "Great Sign", again given to you by God, "I am the Bread of Life, come down from Heaven, whoever comes to me will never hunger and whoever believes in me will never thirst". WILL YOU EXCHANGE YOUR HUNGER AND THIRST FOR WORLDLY RICHES THAT CAN NEVER SATISFY? WILL YOU FOCUS MORE STEADILY ON A GOD RELATIONSHIP WITH THE "BREAD OF LIFE", JESUS, THE ETERNAL NOURISHMENT? WILL YOU? Want to become Catholic or complete your sacraments? For information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

Oh Mary, Mother of Jesus and our Mother, together with St. Michael, the Archangel, and the Heavenly Hosts of Angels, protect the unborn and ask our Heavenly Father to forgive and convert those who advocate or practice abortion and instill in them a respect and reverence for all human life. Give this world that peace and justice that can only come from following your Son, Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Bread of Life

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15

The Israelites complain that Moses led them to the desert and there is no food for them there. Then the Lord told Moses he would rain down bread from heaven so the people might know that \square , the Lord, am your God. \square God did as he had promised and in the morning the people found the bread that he had given them.

Second Reading: Ephesians 4:17, 20-24

Paul tells the Ephesians that they must give up their old way of life and live in accordance with the truth that Christ has brought them. He reminds them to acquire a spiritual way of thinking, and to remember that they are made in God's image and act accordingly.

Gospel: John 6:24-35

The people Jesus had fed on five loaves of bread follow him, and Jesus tells them they should not be looking for perishable food, but for spiritual food. The people want a sign that they should believe in him. He explains that he is the bread of life, and anyone who believes will not experience hunger or thirst. The people did not fully understand that he was speaking in the spiritual sense, and not of actual food.
