“ENCOUNTER”

In our 2nd reading today, St. James refers to God as “The Father of Light.” Have you ever given any thought to what it means to be a “Child of Light?” Our first reading from Deuteronomy instructs you to “carefully observe the Commandments of the Lord, not adding or subtracting from them.” St. James adds, “Welcome God’s Word, be doers of the Word, not only hearers. Keep oneself unstained by the world.” The light of God was planted in you at Baptism making you a Child of Light. Have you kept your light bright? In the gospel, Jesus speaks to you about giving him “lip service,” when he asks for your heart. He warns against impurity, self-indulgence, greed, envy, unclean intentions, hurtful gossip and unkind judgments. Are you deluded by the sin of pride hidden within you or are you humbly self-examining the state of your own soul? Do you strive to eliminate your own transgressions? God knows if your hands are soiled from serving others or if you have been digging in someone else’s dirt. Jesus says, “Nothing that enters a person from outside defiles, but the things that come out from within a person is what defiles, and evil comes from within.” It is easy to become an expert at practicing reverence, with an outward appearance of prayer and piety, but instead harbor dark and unforgiving thoughts in your heart. All sin can be traced back to infidelity to Christ, who despises hypocrisy and who will not tolerate sin. He will remove kings from their thrones and princes from their robes in order to preserve his Bride, the Mystical Body of Christ, the Church. TODAY THE FATHER OF LIGHT INVITES YOU, HIS CHILDREN OF LIGHT, INTO A PROFOUND ENCOUNTER WITH THE DIVINE BY CHALLENGING YOU TO LIVE AN AUTHENTIC CATHOLIC LIFE. Want to become Catholic or complete your sacraments? For information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

“SCHOOL DAYS! SCHOOL DAYS!”

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8

Moses tells the people to always observe the statutes God has given them, without adding or subtracting from these laws. He reminds them that the law is just, and that any nation who heard their statutes would consider them a wise nation.

Second Reading: James 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27

James discusses the gifts that God has given to all people and implores them to respond by welcoming the words of truth that can save them. He emphasizes that through good deeds and pure conduct, our faith in God is proven to him.

Gospel: Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

The Pharisees observed some of Jesus’ disciples eating without first purifying their hands and ask the disciples why they are going against their ancestor’s traditions. Jesus responds that nothing from the outside can make a person impure. The only true evil, acts such as fornication, murder, and greed among others, come from within and make a person impure.

✠ THE OLM LADIES GUILD ✠

Congratulations to our August Raffle Winners:

“JOURNALS OF LOVE”

LADIES GUILD 1st MEETING IN SEPTEMBER

Monday, Sept. 10, 7:30pm, Ryan Room

We received a special request from the Carol Simon Cancer Center, Morristown, for more journals. They are needed by recovering patients who find writing instrumental to their healing process. Come help Create ‘Journals of Love’ for these cancer survivors. Studies have shown that when patients write their deepest thoughts and feelings about cancer, including hopes of recovery and fears of dying, they have fewer symptoms and medical appointments. Anyone can do it..Bringing scissors, glue, decorative stickers and tape is helpful, but not required.
