MEMORIALS – January 13th to January 19th

For those who have been called home to Christ, we pray especially for Amy Yapaola, wife of John and Miriam Cunningham Donovan, mother of Kathleen Donovan.

PHONY EMAILS AND PHONE CALLS

Someone with an affiliation with the parish (parishioner, staff, etc.) had their address book hacked. The hackers are using the email addresses along with Msgr. Carroll's name and, in some instances phone numbers, to social engineer others in that address book. Don't respond to any of these solicitations. To protect yourself, please change your email password as you could have been the party compromised.

SCHOOL BUILDING SECURITY CONCERN

We have been experiencing break-ins in the school gym by young men (college and/or high school age) to play basketball. For insurance reasons, we cannot allow this to continue. Contrary to what the young men have asserted, no one has Msgr. Carroll's permission to play ball in the gym. The police will be contacted in the future if the break-ins continue!

“AT JOURNEY’S END”

Today, we celebrate the Baptism of Jesus. Do you know the date of your own Baptism? Why not try to look it up, then each year celebrate your own special day when you entered into the family of the Lord. On the day of your Baptism you became a Child of Christ, receiving all the gifts you would ever need to forever belong to Him. At that moment you were also assigned a Mission. All of us, at one time or another, ask ourselves, what is our purpose for being born, what is our Mission in life? Today you have received your answer; You were created and you exist in order to find the path in life that best utilizes your gifts to glorify, imitate, and reflect Christ, who loves you. We all travel a different road by the job we choose, by the state of life we live, by our different personalities, the hobbies we enjoy, and the family and friends we interact with on a daily basis. Your mission is to do it all in the name of Jesus. The last words that Christ spoke to his apostles were, “Go and baptize all in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit” Why? Out of love for you. Christ knew if you ever really desired Him, the gift of the Holy Spirit that you received at your baptism would spring forth, providing you with living water that will bring you back home to the Lord. Have the courage of those first believers who stood on line at the Jordan River waiting to be baptized, who believed and risked death to receive the gift of Salvation. Be humble like the Lord who also waited at the end of the line to be baptized and then heard His Father say “you are my Son, with whom I am well pleased.” Will these be the words our dear Lord will say to you when you meet and greet him at the shining river? AT YOUR JOURNEYS END WILL YOU HEAR: “MY DEAR CHILD, WITH YOU I AM WELL PLEASED?”

Would you like to become Catholic or complete your Sacraments? Would you like to join the RCIA team? Please call Monsignor Carroll, 973-838-6838 or Carol Mangani, 973-283-2218, for more information.

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

First Reading: Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

Isaiah tells of the Lord’s Servant, who will be inconspicuous, but will not rest until justice is established. The Lord then tells his servant that he was formed to be “a light for the nations.”

Second Reading: Acts 10:34-38

Peter speaks to a group of pagans for the first time. He explains to them that any person who follows God’s will is acceptable to God, regardless of nationality.

Gospel: Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

John the Baptist had claimed one would come far more powerful than himself, one who would baptize with the Holy Spirit rather than water. When Jesus came to John and was baptized, the Spirit descended on him and a voice said, “You are my beloved Son. On you my favor rests.”

IN & AROUND OUR PARISH

PRO-LIFE CORNER

Oh Father in Heaven, you are the Creator of life. I thank you today for the gift of life. I know there is nothing that destroys more life than abortion. Protect all expectant mothers and the babies they carry in their wombs. We pray that those who suffer from the evils of abortion will be open to Your infinite mercy and love. We ask for the conversion of all who fail to respect the gift of life. Oh Mary, Mother of Jesus, Our Savior, as we enter into the New Year ask our Heavenly Father to forgive and convert those who advocate or practice abortion and instill in them a respect and reverence for all human life. Father, guide our actions to help restore in the hearts of all people the sanctity of human life. Give this world that peace and justice that can only come from following your Son, Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.
