“OUR DESTINY”

Our three readings today speak to you of the Past, Present and Future. In the first reading we find Stephen, being put to death, after witnessing for Christ during the formation of the early church. Young Saul, later known as Paul, stands by and enjoys the persecution of this Christian Martyr. Who could have guessed that the great Conversion that takes place in Saul's life will lead him to become Saint Paul: Lover, Follower and Preacher of Jesus Christ. These Past events lead us to our second reading which deals with our future. Taken from the last paragraph of the Book of Revelations we hear Jesus say, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, blessed are you who have washed your robes in order to have the right to the Tree of Life and to receive the life-giving waters, yes I am coming soon." Are your robes washed clean of all sin? When is the last time you have humbled yourself and asked for Absolution with the Sacrament of Confession? So what about the "Present Time"? Jesus prays for you and all believers right before He is crucified. He asked, like others on their death beds often do, that family remain together and love one another, after His passing. In today's gospel, Jesus prays one last 'Priestly Prayer' saying: "Father they are your gift to me, I wish for them to be with me in Glory: I made known to them your name and the love with which you loved me, that it may also be in them, so they may be brought to perfection". LOVING THE LORD IN THE "HERE AND NOW" DETERMINES YOUR FUTURE. HOW SERIOUSLY ARE YOU WORKING OUT YOUR DESTINY?

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 7:55-60

Stephen was filled with the Holy Spirit, and described seeing Jesus standing at God's right hand. Then he was dragged away and stoned to death before many witnesses who did not believe his words. Before dying he cried, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them."

Second Reading: Revelation 22:12-14, 16-17, 20

John hears a voice saying, "Remember I am coming soon!" This messenger for Jesus says that he will come to reward those who are deserving. Those who hear the call of the Spirit are encouraged to answer by accepting Jesus.

Gospel: John 17:20-26

Jesus prays for all the people who will believe in him through the words of his disciples. His prayer is that the world will live in unity, with Jesus living in us as he lives in God. Although we have not known God, we know Jesus was sent by God because of his love for us. He prays that this love will live on in all people.
