PRO-LIFE CORNER

O Jesus, eternal Truth, and our Life, I call upon You and I beg Your mercy for poor sinners. O sweetest Heart of my Lord, full of pity and unfathomable mercy, I plead with You for poor sinners. O Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, Fount of Mercy from which gush forth rays of inconceivable graces upon the entire human race, I beg of You light for poor sinners. O Jesus, be mindful of Your own bitter Passion, and do not permit the loss of souls redeemed at so dear a price of Your most Precious Blood. Therefore, let every soul Trust in the Passion of the Lord, and place hope in His mercy. God will not deny His mercy to anyone. Heaven and earth may change, but God's mercy will never be exhausted. O Jesus! I desire to bring all sinners to Your feet that they may glorify Your mercy throughout endless ages. Diary of St. Faustina Kowalska

"A NEW WAY"

As we enter into the summer season, we ourselves enjoy, along with family, friends and neighbors, long weekends or week-long vacations. In today's gospel, Jesus is also traveling, not to relax, but to teach, not to retreat, but to encounter, not to consume, but to be offered for consumption. Jesus is a Jew on His way to Jerusalem where His fate of Crucifixion awaits Him. Jesus does not sidestep to avoid His enemies, the Samaritans, but instead sees this as an opportunity to teach His disciples the "love lesson." Jesus teaches by example when He rebukes His Disciples for their idea of taking revenge on the unwelcoming Samaritans. Have you defeated your own tendencies towards "GETTING EVEN" with those who have hurt you? He tells all whom he meets, "Follow Me; go proclaim the Kingdom of God" and today He invites you to do the same. These readings remind us that we are called out of our Comfort Zone, out of our Self-Righteousness, and out of "It's my way of the highway" thinking. Making the journey with Jesus as His Disciple means being uncomfortable, taking risks, enduring sacrifices, and difficulties. Jesus always made time for people, even if it meant climbing a mountain to preach, teach, and feed the multitude. He prayed in deserted places, healed the sick and comforted the afflicted. NOW HE CALLS YOU TO THE MOST DIFFICULT TASK OF ALL, PUTTING THE NEEDS OF OTHERS ON THE TOP OF YOUR "TO DO LIST." TODAY YOU ARE INVITED INTO A NEW WAY..... CHRIST'S WAY.

Would you like to become Catholic or complete your Sacraments? Why not join the RCIA team every Thursday at 7:00pm, in the Parish House and let the Holy Spirit increase your Faith. Please call Carol at 973-283-2218 for more information.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21

Elijah the prophet followed God's instruction to appoint a man named Elisha as his successor. Elijah threw his cloak over Elisha, who went and said good-bye to his family, then followed Elijah without question.

Second Reading: Galatians 5:1, 13-18

Paul reminds us that people were freed from the old law through Christ. But he makes it clear that this freedom does not mean giving in to evil desires. Instead, we must be guided by the Spirit and most importantly love our neighbor as ourselves.

Gospel: Luke 9:51-62

Jesus set out for Jerusalem, and passed through a town where he was not welcomed. He reprimanded his disciples for desiring vengeance against the town. One man wanted to follow Jesus when he had finished his duties at home. Jesus expressed that a man who begins a task, but constantly looks back is unfit for the reign of God.

WE NEED MORE CATECHISTS

Thank you to those of you who heard the call to be catechists. We are grateful for those who stepped forward. But it isn't enough. We still need about 8 more catechists. Please prayerfully consider this important ministry!

Not too long ago, a catechists heard our DRE speak at the Masses, (in an effort to recruit catechists) right after she emailed the following: "I think my kids got a lot out of CCD class the last two years, but I certainly got more. My underlying message to the kids was, good, bad or indifferent, we Catholics are a family. So your 'reach out and touch them' really resonated with me. I got so much joy watching these kids grow. We would have the most amazing conversations and debates and the kids were so insightful. During one of our last classes, a student whispered to me at the end of the class, "You are so chill." I was so touched. I'm privileged to work in this ministry – I pray other parishioners would join me in ministering to our children." Classes begin in September on either Sundays. 10:15 or 7:00 PM or Mondays 4:30 or 7 PM. Contact Mary, DRE, for more information, dre@olmchurch.org, 973-838-0567
