MEMORIALS – July 28th to August 3rd, 2019
The Sanctuary Candle in the Church will burn in loving memory of Dorothy Marie LaBue.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life. Look down, O Mother, upon the vast number of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, abuse, and of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy. Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of Life with honesty and love to the people of our time. Obtain for them the grace to accept that Gospel as a gift ever new, the joy of celebrating it with gratitude throughout their lives and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build, together with all people of good will, the civilization of truth and love, to the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life. Amen. Pope John Paul II

“REPENT, REWIND, RECALCULATE & RENEW”

In today's first reading, we find Abraham pleading with God, saying, "Though I am but dust and ashes I presume to ask You will You sweep away the innocent with the guilty?" God's great love for His people along with Abraham's persistent pleading moves the Lord to promise that He will spare the many, if 10 innocent people can be found in the sinful city of Sodom and Gomorrah, but there were none. Like parents of today who teach their children that poor choices have consequences, our heavenly Father also wishes to correct His children when we are heading in the wrong direction. In today's gospel, Jesus teaches you the Our Father prayer and the rules for living in His Kingdom: share your bread, be a friend, be persistent in prayer when you knock, ask and seek, "forgive those who trespass against you." The deepest needs of the human heart are to be loved and forgiven. St. Paul tells us, "In baptism and with faith in the power of God, you were buried and raised from the dead with Christ, who forgave your transgressions, took your debt upon Himself, removing it from you and nailing it to the cross." YOU BELONG TO CHRIST, SO REPENT, REWIND, RECALCULATE AND RENEW YOUR BAPTISMAL PROMISES, AND HIS LOVE FOR YOU WILL ALWAYS OUTWEIGH HIS JUSTICE!!

Would you like to become Catholic or complete your Sacraments? Why not join the RCIA team every Thursday at 7:00pm, in the Parish House and let the Holy Spirit increase your Faith Please call Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218 for more information.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Genesis 18:20-32

Abraham pleads with the Lord, who planned to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah because of the evil and sin in those cities. Abraham asks him if he would spare the city if fifty, forty, thirty, twenty or even only ten innocent people were found there. God says that he would spare the cities even for the sake of only ten.

Second Reading: Colossians 2:12-14

Paul explains to the Colossians that through baptism, they are raised to life with Christ because they believed in the power of the God who raised him from the dead; Even though they once lived in sin, their sins have been pardoned through Jesus.

Gospel: Luke 11:1-13

Jesus' disciples asked him how they should pray. He gave them some phrases similar to those now used in the Lord's Prayer. Jesus also reminds the disciples how even men with sins are able to give good things to their children, and explains how much more the heavenly Father wants to give to us.
