PRO-LIFE CORNER

We live in a culture where few take responsibility for their lives. People live as victims of their parents, their society, rejection, abuse or of behavior they can't control. We often walk around with lifelong hurts, wounds, self-pity and blame. But Proverbs 18:14 reads: A Man's spirit sustains him in sickness, but a wounded spirit, who can bear? So when you walk around feeling sorry for yourself, dwelling on what's been done to you, you're carrying a wounded spirit. And a wounded spirit will make your life and your burdens heavier and keep you from joy, peace and fulfillment. That's not God's will for your life. Don't go through this life as a victim. Don't live according to how people treated you and start living according to how God treated you. What people did is nothing compared to what the Messiah did on Calvary. That's everything. You're not a victim...you're a VICTOR! In fact, you're even more than a conqueror; Live like one (Pastor Jonathan Cahn). UNLESS WE ARE READY, THROUGH HIS POWER, TO DIE IN THE LIKENESS OF HIS PASSION, HIS LIFE IS NOT IN US. (St. Ignatius of Antioch)

“VANITY OF VANITIES”

In last week’s gospel Jesus taught you to pray the Our Father, a lesson in belonging to God’s Kingdom. Today, He continues teaching you that “less is more and more is not better.” He calls the rich man a fool for “storing up treasure for himself and for not being rich in what matters to God.” In our second reading Saint Paul drives the point home when he says “Put to death the parts of yourself that are earthly: immorality, impurity, passion, evil desires, the greed which is idolatry, seeking what is above, not what is earthly.” DO NOT ALLOW YOUR POSSESSIONS TO POSSESS YOU. Today’s readings stand to remind you that your treasure lies in your New Life with Christ, through your Baptism. FOCUS ON ETERNITY AND FIND YOUR SELF-WORTH IN THE GIVER OF ALL THINGS, THE LORD WHO LOVES YOU BEYOND ALL MEASURE. EVERYTHING ELSE IS “VANITY OF VANITIES..... THE EVIL ONE’S DECEPTION.

WANT TO BECOME A CATHOLIC?
NEED TO COMPLETE YOUR SACRAMENTS?

- The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) by definition is the process in which adults are initiated into the Catholic faith.
- RCIA offers a sequence of instructions to learn more about the Catholic faith: an informative and engaging program which gives participants updated knowledge of Catholic teachings and practice.
- Through RCIA adults can complete their Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist).
- Parishioners are encouraged to invite family members, neighbors, and friends to contact us if they are interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith or if they are interested in completing their Sacraments of Initiation.

LISTEN TO THE VOICE OF GOD

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Ecclesiastes 1:2, 2:21-23

"Vanity of vanities" Sometimes we may work for wealth, wisdom and knowledge only to discover that it has been left for some one who did not toil for it. The offering of our work, fatigue and pain, if not for God, can also be a kind of vanity.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Paul urges us to seek what is good and from God, encouraging us to put our minds on the spiritual. He reminds us that, as Christians, we have died with Christ and are hidden with Christ until his glory is once again revealed. We are all one in Christ.

Gospel: Luke 12:13-21

On being requested to settle a question of inheritance, Jesus heeds us to beware of all covetousness because our life does not consist on the wealth of possessions. Through the lesson of a parable Jesus reinforces this teaching, explaining that those who store up the treasures of wealth and possessions are not the richest in God's eyes.
