RELIGIOUS EDUCATION BEGINS

COMMENTS FROM THE CLASSROOM

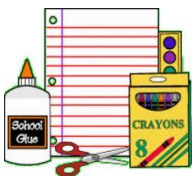

Grades 1-5 - Rel. Ed classes are off to a great start. We began with a prayer service in the auditorium and then the children left with their catechists and went to class. A few tears from the first graders, but that resolved quickly. Looking forward to next week, to doing it all again.

Grades 6-8 - Classes begin Oct. 6/7. Our catechists have been working hard to plan for the new year. We had a few training sessions and meetings to talk about new approaches in teaching religion. We are so blessed to have such an enthusiastic group people so willing to share their time, talent and especially their faith with our children.

"HIS MOST VALUABLE GIFT"

In today's gospel Jesus gives a warning to all who follow Him when he says, "the person who is dishonest in small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If you are dishonest with borrowed wealth or what belongs to another, who will trust you with real wealth or give you riches for yourself?" Are you wise with your gifts? What about those rich and important gifts of wisdom, friendship, understanding, talents and income opportunities? You may like to say, "Hey, I've worked hard for my achievements" and this may be quite true, but it is the Lord who gives you those natural abilities to work hard, to be smart, to have that special talent. Everything you have is God's gift, every breath and every step you make is HIS GIFT. The only thing your Lord asks from you in return is trust and true devotion to Him, which includes decency, honesty, charity, integrity, and respect. Are you trustworthy in small matters? Jesus reminds you today that "No one can serve two masters, and be faithful". Invite Jesus to be the Master of your life for "there is one God and one mediator between God and man; that mediator is Christ Jesus, who gave Himself up as ransom for you, desiring all to be saved". WILL YOU BE FAITHFUL AND TRUSTWORTHY WHILE SEEKING HIS MOST VALUABLE GIFT...SALVATION? Would you like to become Catholic or complete your Sacraments? Would you like to join the RCIA team? Please join us in the Parish House, 7:00pm Thursdays or call Carol Mangani, 973-283-2218, for more information.

PRAISE God

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Amos 8:4-7

The prophet Amos expressed disgust over people who take advantage of the poor. He describes businessmen scheming to cheat the poor, then declares that God will "never forget the things they have done."

Second Reading: 1 Timothy 2:1-8

Paul urges the Christians to pray for all people, especially those in authority. Paul even asked them to pray for the kings who denounced Christ's teachings, because God wants all people to be saved through Jesus.

Gospel: Luke 16:1-13

Jesus tells a story about a servant who tries to cheat his employer. The owner is impressed because he would do the same thing himself. Jesus then describes the importance of being trustworthy in small matters, as well as in greater ones. He then states that no one can serve two masters faithfully, so people cannot give themselves completely to both God and money.
