RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

THANK YOU AND CONGRATULATIONS!

A big shout out to Mrs. Leonard and Mrs. Chomick's 4th Gr. class for leading the congregation at the 9 AM Mass today, as they took on roles as lectors and gift bearers. Well done!

WE ARE VERY PROUD OF OUR STUDENTS

The 6 PM mass is going very well. Our 7 & 8th grade students are doing a great job in their new roles of ushers, greeters, altar servers, lectors and singers. I'm very proud of their dedication to their ministries. Please join us at the 6 PM mass on Sundays, it is open to the entire parish and we'd love to see you there.

"HOWDY PARTNER"

Today's readings focus clearly on your life's mission to become SALT and LIGHT for the world. In our first reading, Isaiah says, "Remove oppression, false accusation and malicious speech, bestow your bread on the hungry and satisfy the afflicted; then light will rise from you in the darkness." St. Paul exclaims, "I know nothing except Jesus Christ crucified; in weakness, fear and trembling I tell you, let your faith rest not on human wisdom, but on the power of God." St. Paul knows that in order to be SALT and LIGHT for others we must be firmly rooted in Christ's message, not on worldly ways. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells you this, "You are the SALT of the earth and the LIGHT of the world, your LIGHT must shine before others, so they will see your good deeds, and then you will glorify God." JESUS TRUSTS YOU SO MUCH THAT HE HAS MADE YOU A PARTNER IN HIS MISSION. JESUS IS WAITING FOR YOUR...."HOWDY PARTNER".

Would you like to become Catholic or complete your Sacraments? Would you like to join the RCIA team? Please join us in the Parish House, Thursday evenings, 7:00pm or call Carol Mangani, 973-283-2218, for information.

PARISHIONER NEEDS HELP FOR MOM

Companion needed for 90 year old woman at Cedar Crest. She needs a couple of hours per day, in the morning, to help with breakfast, medications and activities of daily living. Please contact Anne Marie Kelly at 973-953-7705.

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 58:7-10

This reading is a vigorous exhortation from the prophet Isaiah to lead lives of active charity and generosity. He promises that the Lord will be our "dawn," our "rear guard," our "light" if we share our bread, shelter the homeless, and clothe the naked.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:1-5

Paul tells the Corinthians that he and they must not rely on the so-called "wisdom" of secular teaching and philosophy but on the power of the Spirit.

Gospel: Matthew 5:13-16

Jesus reminds the disciples and all Christians that they carry special responsibilities to be "the salt of the earth." They must not hide their light but show their goodness to all.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

How do we please God? Through faith, and faith needs to be released, for "faith apart from works is dead." (James 2:26). At times, "works" is turning to Jesus and speaking out what you believe in your heart. Faith has a "voice". Faith is for now; in Heaven we will not need it! Faith demands some kind of action, not a passive response. We have in the Bible numerous examples of people getting healed as they released faith in the person of Jesus Christ. They spoke out; some even shouted! Some walked a long distance. And if you notice, Jesus never turned them down and they received their healing! "And without faith it is impossible to please Him. For whoever would draw near to God must believe that He exists and that He rewards those who seek Him." Amen! (Hebrews 11:6)
