"GIVE ME, GIVE ME"

Today's readings are a continuation of last week's miraculous bread provision. Although the Israelites have been freed from Egyptian slavery they grumble against God, who in His mercy sends a daily portion of Manna from Heaven. God says; "so that you may know that I, the Lord, am your God." He is teaching His people to trust in Him for their daily sustenance. The people must recognize that they belong to Him. This interaction can be the beginning of a life long Conversion – a turning towards God. We also must turn our eyes daily towards the Lord with an unshakable TRUST, especially during these turbulent times. Saint Paul teaches; "you must put away your old self, corrupted through your deceitful desires, and put on the new self, renewed in the Spirit and created in God's ways of righteousness and holiness of Truth." In today's Gospel the people ask Jesus; "What can we do to accomplish the works of God?" Jesus answers; "Do not work for food that perishes, but for the True Bread that my Father sends down from heaven, which gives life to the world. Believe in the One He sends; I am the Bread of Life and whoever believes in Me will never hunger or thirst but have Eternal Life." WHAT DOES YOUR GOD RELATIONSHIP LOOK LIKE? IS IT THE "GIVE ME, GIVE ME" KIND OR IS IT LORD I BELIEVE, I TRUST, I COME TO DO YOUR WILL !!!!

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15

The Israelites complain that Moses led them to the desert and there is no food for them there. Then the Lord told Moses he would rain down bread from heaven so the people might know that Al, the Lord, am your God. @ God did as he had promised and in the morning the people found the bread that he had given them.

Second Reading: Ephesians 4:17, 20-24

Paul tells the Ephesians that they must give up their old way of life and live in accordance with the truth that Christ has brought them. He reminds them to acquire a spiritual way of thinking, and to remember that they are made in God's image and act accordingly.

Gospel: John 6:24-35

The people Jesus had fed on five loaves of bread follow him, and Jesus tells them they should not be looking for perishable food, but for spiritual food. The people want a sign that they should believe in him. He explains that he is the bread of life, and anyone who believes will not experience hunger or thirst. The people did not fully understand that he was speaking in the spiritual sense, and not of actual food.
