Message from the Pastor

I am happy to share with you an article about our parish written by our very talented parishioner, Helene Corlett - enjoy!

The earliest records of the Catholic Church in Bottle Hill go back as far as 1805 when Father Viennet, from St. Peter's Church in New York would travel by boat to Elizabeth, then by stage to Bottle Hill to say Mass. The Duberceau house on Park Avenue was probably where the first Mass was celebrated. As the Catholic community grew, more space was needed. Mass was then celebrated at the Madison Academy on the corner of Ridgedale and Park Avenues.

With the influx of French and Irish Catholics it became obvious that a permanent church was needed. In 1825 a permanent home was set up on Ridgedale Avenue with the upper floor as the priest's residence and the ground floor the church. It was a small clapboard building with a cross on the front. When the community outgrew this small structure, additional property was purchased in the area to accommodate a rectory as well as the church. Two French gentlemen, Messrs. Boisaubin and Beaupland, made an agreement with each other to share the expense of building a new church. Construction started in 1838 at 69 Ridgedale Avenue, the cost was $4,050.00. It was dedicated in 1839, after Vincent Boisaubin's patron saint, St. Vincent Martyr. The first pastor was Father Richard Newell who stayed until 1842.

In 1899, Pastor Reverend Dr. Joseph McDowell felt with the increase in parishioners it was time for a new church. Property, 3 1/2 acres, at the corner of Wilmer Street and Green Village Road was purchased from the Condon family., Parishioner, John Corbett, was chosen as the builder of the Norman-Gothic church. Indiana limestone was used over masonry framework, only brick, stone, mortar and wood was used, no steel. Corbett was given the original church and rectory on Ridgedale Avenue as part of his payment. The dedication took place on September 30, 1906 by Most Reverend John O'Connor, Bishop of Newark.

Stewardship Corner

The Community Service Committee at St. Vincent Martyr School provides students with opportunities to serve others throughout the school year. These opportunities are designed to benefit and build relationships with the poor, the elderly, the lonely, the homeless and the hungry. The following is another sampling of programs offered to students:

- Students visit and sing to the Sisters of Charity of St. Elizabeth and other residents of the Villa at Florham Park, formerly known as St. Anne Villa.
- Students assemble bags with toiletries and other notions for men studying at Immaculate Conception Seminary at Seton Hall, many of whom have served as priests or deacons at our parish.
- Students change the church missals twice per year.

We are grateful for the ways our young members participate in the life of the church!

OUR LADY OF MT. CARMEL

Monday, July 16 at the 8:30 a.m. Mass, we will celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, the Patronal Feast of the Carmelite Order of Friars and Sisters. Its spirituality finds its inspiration in the prophet Elijah, who saw from Carmel a cloud in the distance that would bring rain after a drought. That 'rain bearing cloud' became an image of the savior bearing Mary. Intercessory prayers will be offered at the conclusion of the Mass, scapulars will be blessed and distributed and a light reception will follow. All are invited. If anyone wishes to bake for the reception, please call Joan Graziano at 973-377-4151.

Ministry

HOPE HOUSE

Next week is our monthly collection for Hope House, Dover. Items may be left in the church vestibule, through Sunday. Your generous donation of non-perishable goods such as cereals, coffee/tea, detergents, canned goods, toiletries, etc. are greatly appreciated. Please be as generous as your means permit to help those in need.

A Family Perspective

Today's gospel is so familiar, it hurts! The home town folks couldn't accept the presence of God in Jesus. After all, they had watched him grow up. We can easily make the same mistake if we don't see God present in the ordinary routines of our family. "The Lord be with you" is a statement of fact. Believe it. Live it.

In the Community

El Centurión: La Fe

Continuamos leyendo/reflexionando el capítulo 11 del libro De la Cruz a la Tumba Vacía, de nuestro obispo Serratelli, traducido a nuestra lengua.

“Aquellos crucificados con Jesús lanzan su discurso abusivo hacia él. Los que pasan arrojan sus propias palabras en su rostro como un insulto: “Tú que destruirías el templo y lo reconstruirías en tres días, sálvate a ti mismo, si eres el Hijo de Dios, y baja de la Cruz”. (Mateo 27:40). Los líderes del pueblo toman sus obras de misericordia como sanar a los enfermos, dar vista a los ciegos y resucitar a los muertos, y se arrojan a Él con burla: “Salvó a otros, no

puede salvarse a sí mismo ... pues que baje de la cruz ahora, y creeremos en Él” (Mateo 27, 42).

Ellos están en lo correcto. Jesús tiene poder sobre su propia vida. Él mismo dijo: “Nadie me la quita, pero yo la doy por mí mismo. Tengo poder para dejarla y poder para volver a tomarla” (Juan 10, 8). Pero, están equivocados al pedir que baje de la Cruz. “El Hijo del hombre no vino para ser servido, sino para servir y dar su vida en rescate por muchos” (Mateo 20, 28). El se queda en la Cruz. Él no baja. No, Él nos lleva con Él al Padre.

La ley romana está visitando la injusticia sobre Jesús. Su propia gente lo rechaza. Sus amigos lo han abandonado. Sus enemigos lo están ultrajando. Sin embargo, Jesús sigue siendo el dueño de su propia vida. No hay palabras de resentimiento contra una autoridad abusiva. No hay maldiciones para sus enemigos. No hay reproche herido de sus amigos. Sin odio sin venganza. Sin maldad

En dos ocasiones, cuando Jesús expulsó a Satanás de los poseídos, el mal salió derrotado, bramando con un fuerte grito ( ver Marcos 1, 26; 5, 7). Ahora, en la Cruz, Jesús ejemplifica su propia enseñanza “amar a tus enemigos, hacer el bien a los que te odian, bendecir a los que te maldicen, orar por los que te maltratan” (Lucas 6, 27-28), Jesús nos ama a nosotros hasta su último aliento: Jesús se ha enfrentado a la grotesca realidad del poder de Satanás en este mundo. Todo el mal que alguna vez oprimió a los hijos de Dios desde el tiempo de Adán está forzando a Jesús. Sin embargo, Él permanece inquebrantable en su amor. Mientras muere, Él grita fuerte (Marcos 15, 34-37). Satanás ha sido expulsado”.
