Message from the Pastor

I have a friend who served our country as a Marine. Whenever he is really sure about something he will use the expression: "I have no doubt in my military mind." This usually means that there is little chance of convincing him otherwise about the matter at hand. It's when the sergeant comes out in him!

Recently I read an article in the New York Times about the military mind - or more specifically, about military mindfulness. The report included the thoughts of Army Major General Piatt, Commander of the 10th Mountain Division at Fort Drum. Piatt served in numerous assignments all over the world and completed several operational deployments to include Suriname, Bosnia, Kosovo, Afghanistan and Iraq. The major general recounted a time that he was involved in a delicate diplomatic mission in Iraq and needed to be focused as he undertook a delicate conversation with a tribal leader. He achieved that focus through meditation. In the end, he said, mindfulness allowed him to "reduce conflict by better understanding." "I'm not saying, be soft," he added. "I'm saying, understand how compassion and empathy can be used for real advantages." He continued: "peace takes a lot of hard work." I share this with you on this Memorial Day weekend to honor all the hard work being done by our women and men in the armed services as they strive to keep the peace throughout the world. We do not want to take for granted all the physical, emotional, mental and spiritual energy that our troops expend in serving our country. God bless them and keep them in His constant care.

Of course the heart of our Memorial Day celebration is a profound gratitude for all the men and women who gave their lives in service of our great nation. The courageous souls show us that not only does peace take a lot of hard work, but that sometimes it takes sacrificing your life for the good of your fellow citizens and for the protection of their freedom. In a culture where many people are caught up with the concern of "what's in it for me" there is the constant danger that those who put others before themselves could be forgotten and unappreciated. Memorial Day reminds us that this cannot and must not happen. And so today let us pray for the souls of departed soldiers that they may rest in peace. Let us honor their memories by responsibly using the freedoms we enjoy as Americans. Let us advance the cause of peace by letting it begin with me and begin with you.

Let us be grateful - today and every day!

You are invited to celebrate the gift that Fr. Przemek has been to our parish on the weekend of June 8 and 9. At all the masses that weekend we will bless Fr. Przemek and send him forth with our love and prayers to his new assignment as Head Chaplain of Morristown Memorial Hospital. On Sunday, June 9, Father Przemek will celebrate the 10:30 a.m. Mass which will be followed by a reception in the school gym. All are welcome!

Stewardship

The concept of hospitality is fundamental to a stewardship way of life. When we envision hospitality, we naturally think of offering a sincere and warm welcome - to those new to our parish. Today's Gospel reading invites us to think of hospitality in a slightly different way. We hear Jesus asking that we permit the Blessed Trinity to come and dwell within us. This is a stunning request. It tells us that our first and most privileged form of hospitality should be directed towards God Himself. How do we do that? Ask the Holy Spirit to show you when and how you can get to know God's word in your particular circumstances and then commit to it! Simple practices of daily prayer, Bible study and reading faith-based books can radically change one's life. We will begin to more easily think like Jesus, respond like Jesus, and live like Jesus. We really will form our minds, hearts and souls into a place where the Blessed Trinity is pleased to dwell. If we want our parish to be a place of genuine Christian hospitality, we must be sure that our own hearts are hospitable dwelling places for the Blessed Trinity. Then, our smiles and words, our greetings and ministries, will radiate with the warmth of God's love. And, our parish family will become at least a little bit like Heaven on earth. This is the simplicity and glory of a stewardship way of life.

The Trip of a Lifetime: Make a Pilgrimage to the Holy Land

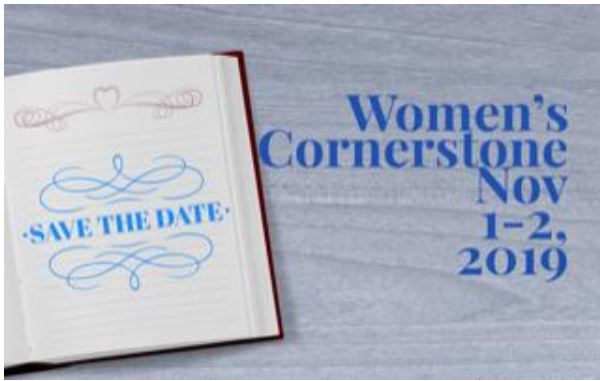

NB: This pilgrimage has been rescheduled for February 9 - 18, 2020

Anytime is the perfect opportunity to travel to the homeland of Jesus. Our pilgrimage, led by Father Darwin Lastra and Jan Figenshu, will change you forever. Each group is a unique and intimate community which allows us to experience the special places of the Gospels in a new and more intimate way. Ask any of our parishioners who have gone on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and they will agree:: Traveling to the homeland of Jesus changes you forever.

The benefits of making this trip are plentiful: experience a spiritual awakening, discover the land of the Bible, gain a deeper insight and understanding of Scripture. Be transformed in ways you cannot even begin to imagine.

This trip is YOUR time. We look forward to experiencing Nazareth, Mt Tabor, the Jordan River, a boat ride on the Sea of Galilee, the way of the Cross, the birthplace of Jesus, the streets of Jerusalem, and witnessing the empty tomb with you. We will stand in the sites of the Scriptures and walk in the footsteps of Jesus. Join us!! You will never be the same and you most certainly will not regret it. En la noche de Getsemaní

El Papa citó algunos momentos en los que Jesús oró al Padre, en primer lugar, la noche de Getsemaní, allí, dijo el Santo Padre, Jesús ora de esta manera: “Abba, Padre, tú lo puedes todo, aparta de mí esta copa. Pero no se haga mi voluntad, sino la tuya”. Y en el texto del Evangelio de Marcos, se pregunta el Pontífice: ¿Cómo podemos dejar de reconocer en esta oración, aunque sea breve, un rastro del "Padre Nuestro"? “En medio de la oscuridad, Jesús invoca a Dios con el nombre de "Abbà", con confianza filial y, mientras siente temor y angustia, pide que se cumpla su voluntad”.

Jesús a sus discípulos pide que cultiven espíritu de oración

“En otros pasajes del Evangelio, Jesús insiste con sus discípulos para que puedan cultivar un espíritu de oración”. Pero la oración debe ser insistente, y sobre todo, afirmó Francisco, debe traer la memoria de los hermanos, especialmente cuando vivimos relaciones difíciles con ellos. Jesús dice: "Cuando os pongáis a orar, perdonad lo que tengáis contra otros, y vuestro Padre del cielo os perdonará vuestras culpas". ¿Cómo podemos dejar de reconocer la similitud con el "Padre Nuestro" en estas expresiones? Y los ejemplos podrían ser numerosos.

También se encuentran en los escritos de San Pablo una presencia del Padre, en una “estupenda” síntesis, dijo el Papa, donde la invocación del cristiano se condensa en una sola palabra: "Abbà".

En el Evangelio de Lucas Jesús enseña la oración del Padre

“En el Evangelio de Lucas, Jesús satisface plenamente la petición de los discípulos que, al verlo a menudo aislado y sumergiéndose en la oración, un día deciden preguntarle: "Señor, enséñanos a orar, como Juan, el Bautista, enseñó a sus discípulos". Y entonces el Maestro les enseñó la oración al Padre”.

Francisco dijo que “considerando el Nuevo Testamento como un todo, está claro que el primer protagonista de toda oración cristiana es el Espíritu Santo, que sopla en el corazón del discípulo. El Espíritu nos hace capaces de orar como hijos de Dios, lo que realmente somos para el Bautismo”. Porque como dijo el Santo Padre, el Espíritu nos hace orar en el "surco" que Jesús cavó para nosotros. Este es el misterio de la oración cristiana: por gracia nos atrae ese diálogo de amor de la Santísima Trinidad.

“Jesús oró así. A veces usaba expresiones que ciertamente están muy lejos del texto del "Padre Nuestro". Pensemos en las palabras iniciales del Salmo 22, que Jesús pronuncia en la cruz: " Dios mío, Dios mío, ¿por qué me has abandonado?. ¿Puede el Padre celestial abandonar a su Hijo? No, desde luego”. Y sin embargo, dijo el Papa, el amor por nosotros, los pecadores, llevó a Jesús a este punto: al punto de experimentar el abandono de Dios, su lejanía. Pero incluso en el grito de angustia, el "Dios mío, Dios mío" permanece. En ese "mío" está el núcleo de la relación con el Padre, está el núcleo de la fe y la oración.

"¡Te alabo, Padre, Señor de cielo y tierra, porque, ocultando estas cosas a los sabios y entendidos, se las diste a conocer a la gente sencilla!”

Por eso, a partir de este núcleo, un cristiano puede orar en cualquier situación. Él puede asumir todas las oraciones de la Biblia, especialmente de los Salmos; pero también puede orar con tantas expresiones que en milenios de historia han brotado del corazón de los hombres. Y al Padre nunca dejamos de hablar de nuestros hermanos y hermanas en la humanidad, porque ninguno de ellos, especialmente los pobres, permanece sin un consuelo y una porción de amor.
