Message from the Pastor

Last week, Fr. Richard Rohr entitled one of his daily meditations - "A School of Love" - it was part of a week-long reflection on conscious parenting. He wrote that "relationships are the primary school for love. For many people, parenting or care-giving serves as a container in which the soul, heart, body, and mind can grow." It is within this context that one does the work of generous, generative caring, hopefully knowing that our loving God who is both Father and Mother, parents us as we nurture others.

Fr. Rohr continues by suggesting that "true holiness and wholeness come when we allow God's love and grace to unfold in the present moment and we respond to what is before us." Holiness is really about being connected to the source and font of all love - being connected to God as branches are to a vine. When we are connected our compassionate response to need and to suffering is drawn naturally from whom we are in love.

"I think that's why so many parents become such good and holy people, because that's what caring for children does for us." Because we can't control or always predict what children will ask of us they are likely to make us a lot less egocentric. In his reflection Fr. Richard recounted a story about how he was visited by some friends of his who stayed with him in his home of Albuquerque. It was a family with three little children who all had croup. For three days the little ones took turns getting sick everywhere. He writes: "I did five loads of laundry. I don't think we had one relaxing, enjoyable meal together. Having lived alone for much of my adult life, this was a shock. We vowed - religious, celibate folks sometimes think we're making a sacrifice, choosing the harder part. But the energy, commitment and selflessness that's endlessly demanded of parents surpasses anything that has every been asked of me".

To that sentiment I, Fr. George, say a hearty AMEN! I have always maintained that parenting is a most challenging vocation and I admire all of you who embrace that call with such great faith, hope and love. This conviction extends also to all who are stepping up to 'parent' children when that need arises in a life of a family or circle of friends and all who are 'care-takers' for friends and family.

Bottom line - there is a lot of holiness going on at Saint Vincent Martyr - and most of it is happening in the pews! Keep up the good work!

Stewardship

In today's Gospel passage from Luke, we find our Lord appointing disciples to go out in pairs and prepare others to receive His invitation into the Kingdom of God. There is symbolic importance to working in teams. It points to the reality that when we invite others to embrace the Good News of the Gospel, we are not merely inviting them into a belief system, but into a relationship with Christ and through that relationship, into Christ's family — our fellow Christian disciples near and far.

Our parish is, in a sense, our immediate spiritual family in this extended worldwide fold. We are not meant to live as isolated individuals within the parish any more than we are meant to live in isolation within our families. We are meant to be a community. That is why it is so important for us to foster a vibrant, supportive, welcoming parish life. This is why we emphasize hospitality as one of the pillars of stewardship. It is not enough just to point others to Christ, we must invite them to join us in community with Him; we must offer a place and mission for them in the Church and within our parish family.

Stewardship Opportunity for Families Parent and Child Lectors

Serving as a liturgical minister is a special way to share your gifts! We are recruiting new Parent and Child Lector Teams for the Fall. This is a beautiful way to participate even more fully in the Mass each week and to spend time as a family reviewing the upcoming readings. The Parent/Child Team proclaim the Readings at the 9 AM Sunday Liturgy. Children should be in the 4th to 8th Grades. A short training is required and materials are available to the family for review before reading. Families are scheduled once every 2 months or so. For more information, please contact Jeanne Buckley at jeanneb1967@optonline.net. (Teens interested in being Lectors can also contact Jeanne Buckley.)

Culture of Life Corner

We have all read terrible stories from time to time where an abandoned baby has been left to die in a place where no one could find the child in time to offer any help.

This need not be the case in New Jersey where we have the Safe Haven Infant Protection Act. Here is what the law allows: "a distressed parent who is unable to care for an infant can give up custody of a baby less than 30 days old safely, legally and anonymously. All that is required is that the baby be brought to any hospital emergency room, police station, fire station, ambulance, first aid, and rescue squads in New Jersey that are staffed 24 hours a day, seven days a week. As long as the child shows no signs of intentional abuse, no name or other information is required."

As of June 2019, 72 newborns have been surrendered under Safe Haven which was passed in 2000. Now the state is undergoing a public awareness campaign to remind citizens of this life-saving law. Using the tag line, "No shame, no blame, no names," NJ Department of Children and Families is letting people know that there is help available for desperate situations.

The Trip of a Lifetime: Make a Pilgrimage to the Holy Land

NB: This Pilgrimage has been rescheduled for February 9 - 18, 2020

There are pilgrimages, tours, vacations, and trips, but a visit to the Holy Land is a homecoming! Spend 10 days walking, praying, laughing and experiencing the Homeland of Jesus. This is an experience that will forever change your life! We will explore the Galilee, Jerusalem, the Judean Desert. Walk the path that disciples have walked for over 2000 years. We are blessed to have Fr. Darwin Lastra and Jan Figenshu lead this group.

Join us!! You will never be the same and you most certainly will not regret it. For more information, contact Jan Figenshu at jan.figenshu@svmnj.org or ext 253.

Don't miss out - places are filling up quickly!

Prayer

ROSARY SOCIETY

The Rosary is prayed daily at 8:00 a.m. followed by Mass at 8:30 a.m. Let us continue this devotion to our Blessed Mother. The Rosary Altar Society meets every 2nd Monday of the month with the exception of July and August.

THERE WILL BE NO HOLY HOUR DURING JULY AND AUGUST!

OUR LADY OF MT. CARMEL

Tuesday, July 16 at the 8:30 a.m. Mass, we will celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, the Patronal Feast of the Carmelite Order of Friars and Sisters. Its spirituality finds its inspiration in the prophet Elijah, who saw from Carmel a cloud in the distance that would bring rain after a drought. That 'rain bearing cloud' became an image of the savior bearing Mary. Intercessionary prayers will be offered at the conclusion of the Mass, scapulars will be blessed and distributed and a light reception will follow. All are invited. If anyone wishes to bake for the reception, please call Joan Graziano at 973-377-4151.

CHRISTIAN FORMATION

Returning Families: K-8th

A re-registration form has been mailed to the address we have on file for your currently enrolled child(ren).

The forms you should have gotten are per family and then per child, so please fill in all portions and return at your first convenience. If you did not receive one in the mail please call or email the Christian Formation Office, Marla Martinez 973-377-4000 ext. 252. We ask that you carefully consider which option best suits the way your child learns and what is best for the family as a whole. Remember space sometimes can be limited in certain programs, so we urge you to return your completed paperwork in a timely fashion. We ask that you again prayerfully consider enrolling into our religious education program as we would be happy to have you and your family back in Christian Formation at St. Vincent Martyr Church.

New Families

Christian Formation registration forms for the fall for registered parishioners are available in our offices on the second floor of the Ministry Center. Please feel free to contact us to find out more about formation options Pre-K through grade 8 and we would be happy to share with you more details.

YOUTH NEWS

Registrations for the 2019 - 2020 school year have been mailed. If you have not received one check the website for a registration form or call Jody at the Youth Ministry Office at 973-377-4000, ext. 301.

A Family Perspective

Just like the seventy-two disciples sent out by Jesus in today's gospel, families are expected to be missionaries. By our lives, words and life style we proclaim peace, commitment, fidelity and respect to a culture caught up with violence and gratification.

Service

SVM RETREAT/SERVICE OPPORTUNITY ROMERO CENTER

During Lent, the Romero Center in Camden was the recipient of our Lenten Almsgiving donations. When their staff came to speak at our Masses, we learned about their Urban Challenge Program. This program provides retreats which incorporate prayer, reflection, the principles of Catholic Social Teaching, and direct service to the poor and vulnerable in Camden.

On Thursday, July 18 to Friday, July 19, you are invited to experience one of these overnight retreats. The plan is to meet at the Romero Center at 5:00 p.m. on Thursday. The Center will provide meals and overnight accommodations. Their staff will guide us through the retreat and take us to service projects in Camden on Friday. We will end Friday with further reflection and dinner together at the Romero Center. Departure time from Camden will be 7:45 p.m. Participants are asked to provide their own transportation, but we can help to arrange carpools for those who do not wish to drive alone. The retreat is open to everyone ages 18 and older. The Romero Center requests a limit of 15 participants. The cost is $100. per person. Scholarships are available. We do not want the cost to be a deterrent for anyone who wishes to attend.

For details about the retreat, or to sign up, please contact Kathy Larkin at kathylarkin24@gmail.com or 201-486-5483. Registration due date is July 10.

Camerino al día siguiente. "El papa vino a estar con nosotros"

Entrevista de Fabio Colagrande con Don Marco Gentilucci, párroco de Camerino, al día siguiente de la visita del Papa

Fabio Colagrande – Ciudad del Vaticano

Don Marco Gentilucci, párroco de la iglesia de San Venanzio, patrón de la ciudad de las Marcas, explica la importancia de la visita del Papa Francisco a Camerino para conocer a las víctimas del terremoto. "Mucha gente está abandonando la ciudad y se necesita un rápido trabajo de reconstrucción".

Un día de gracia

"Todos despertamos, toda la ciudad, llenos de alegría porque fue un día de gracia, un día tan deseado y hermoso, en el que cada uno pudo tocar con sus propias manos la gran humanidad del Papa Francisco. Después de la visita del Papa a las víctimas del terremoto del archidiócesis de Camerino - San Severino Marche, don Marco Gentilucci, párroco de la iglesia de San Venanzio en Camerino, expresó a los micrófonos de Radio Vaticana Italia su gratitud y la de sus feligreses.

Siempre cerca

En su homilía, en el día dedicado a la Santísima Trinidad, el Papa habló de memoria, cercanía y esperanza. "Me ha impresionado especialmente -explica el sacerdote- el hecho de que haya podido tocar a fondo las cuestiones del sufrimiento de estos años y que haya conseguido hacernos sentir su cercanía. Aunque debo decir honestamente que nunca lo hemos sentido lejos, porque en tantos momentos y en tantas ocasiones estuvo cerca de nosotros". "Pero era el deseo de todos nosotros sentirlo aún más cerca y verlo y poder intercambiar una palabra con él, como muchos han podido hacer.

Cumplió su promesa

"Fue una elección importante venir a Camerino el domingo, con motivo de una solemnidad y pasar todo este tiempo con nosotros", continúa el párroco de la iglesia dedicada al santo patrón de la ciudad. "El Papa, en mi opinión, ha querido con gran fuerza y claridad poner el foco de atención en un territorio que necesita atención y que no debe ser olvidado. "En estos tres años de promesas y palabras -desgraciadamente tantas en vano- hemos escuchado a tantos, en cambio él ha sido concreto y sobre todo ha cumplido la promesa que nos ha hecho muchas veces". "Era importante - explica Don Marco - optar por visitar Camerino como símbolo de todos los países que están sufriendo el terremoto de 2016: el Papa estaba aquí, pero todas las víctimas del terremoto en esta parte de Italia estaban con él".

Desbloquear las posibles intervenciones de inmediato "La reconstrucción aquí sigue siendo nula porque hay una fase operativa que todavía está en marcha", comenta el sacerdote. "Ha habido una parada de seguridad, pero aún no ha habido una transición a la fase de planificación y operación. Hay muchas casas a las que se podría acceder con poco, con una intervención rápida. En cambio, todavía no hay una imagen precisa de las intervenciones y esto alarga los tiempos de una manera terrible y, desafortunadamente, también ahuyenta a muchas personas que se ven obligadas a tomar decisiones diferentes para la estabilidad de sus familias". "Sería útil desbloquear rápidamente las intervenciones que son posibles: esto permitiría a muchos volver a casa", comenta el párroco.

Comunidad eclesial desintegrada: falta la "casa de todos"

"Quien se acerca a Dios no cae, sigue adelante: vuelve a empezar, intenta, reconstruye", recordó ayer el Papa en la homilía pronunciada en Camerino. "No es fácil para nosotros, pastores, mantener viva la esperanza de esta gente", concluye Don Gentilucci. "También porque compartimos el mismo destino que los demás y en muchos momentos nos resulta difícil encontrar la fuerza para empezar de nuevo". "Una gran dificultad que se añade es no tener un lugar donde podamos encontrarnos como feligreses. Ni una Iglesia, ni un oratorio, ni una sala: todos los lugares que representaban una casa abierta a todos. Haberlos perdido significa haber perdido lugares donde encontrarnos y sobre todo lugares que hablan de nuestra historia. Por eso nos hemos encontrado con tantas dificultades para mantener nuestras comunidades unidas y tantas personas se han dispersado y se han mudado y no es fácil encontrar a tanta gente". (Tomado Vatican news 06/19/19)
