“Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all.”

James and John, the “Sons of Thunder,” seem completely oblivious to the words of Jesus about his imminent suffering and death. Jesus patiently gives them another lesson in the new kingdom. Those in authority are not to expect perks and benefits, nor luxury and riches. “It shall not be so among you,” Jesus tells them. There will be no place for self-promotion, rivalry, or domineering conduct. Leadership in his Church will be based on service, acting for others, serving others, caring for their most humble needs. Jesus asks, “Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?” We are called to follow Jesus wherever the path leads, even in suffering and death. It is not to be taken lightly, for this is the path to eternal salvation with God.

Hurricane Relief

When a natural disaster occurs in the United States and its territories, electronic donations may be made and parish collections are directed to Catholic Charities USA, which assures us that 100% of donations go to the local organizations providing assistance. They and their member agencies respond to immediate emergency needs for such necessities as water, food, shelter and medical care, as well as to the long-term need to rebuild and recover after widespread destruction. They also assist the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops with pastoral and reconstruction needs of the Church. To make a donation:
