This Parent-Student Handbook has been prepared to assist parents, students, and staff in understanding the philosophy of a Catholic school and the procedures and regulations of St. Edward Catholic School, thus insuring the good order of the school day. The Parent-Student Handbook can be found on the school website: stedwardschool.org. It is expected that this Parent-Student Handbook will be carefully reviewed by those for whom it is written. The topics addressed in this Parent-Student Handbook are not inclusive and are subject to discretionary interpretation by the principal. Any changes will be sent home in written form. Clarifications may be obtained by contacting the principal's office. Please note that the Technology Acceptable Use Policy is incorporated in the Handbook. Parents and students are required to sign, date, and return the acknowledgment form below to the oldest child's teacher. Your signature and that of your child/children indicate that you have read this Parent-Student Handbook. It also means that you have discussed with your child/children the appropriate items from the Parent-Student Handbook, and that you and your child/children agree to abide by the school procedures, regulations, and policies discussed in this Parent-Student Handbook. You also give release for your child to be photographed and for this photograph to be used for the promotion of the school. If you do not wish for your child's photo to be used, you must submit this in writing to the principal. No student may be opted out of the yearbook or group photos. The acknowledgment forms are due no later than Friday of the second week of school. Thank you for your cooperation.
