As our 2019/2020 academic year ends, so does the tenure of our Bishop, Arthur J. Serratelli. Over the past 15 years, he has been an ardent supporter of Catholic education at every level; the family, the parish and the Catholic school. His spiritual leadership has ensured that the young people of our diocese received the support needed to grow and mature in grace and wisdom. We thank him for his selfless years of service and stewardship and wish him God’s blessings in the next chapter of his life.

“In the pluralistic society of today, the Catholic school remains an important and privileged place in the Church’s mission. By integrating faith development and academic achievement, Catholic schools contribute to the good of society by forming individuals who are academically, socially and morally prepared to work for the common good. Catholic schools are worth every sacrifice we make on their behalf.”

-Bishop Arthur J. Serratelli

“...developing communities that are Christ-centered, academically excellent and welcoming...”

60% of our eighth graders will continue their Catholic education within one of our diocesan high schools.
On March 13, 2020, it was announced that all Diocese of Paterson Catholic schools would transition to remote learning due to the COVID-19 pandemic. With the safety of everyone in our community of paramount concern, we embarked on a journey into unchartered territory. Our previous distance-learning contingency planning proved invaluable; our schools adapted with the utmost urgency and professionalism.

We could not be more proud of how our extraordinary principals, faculty, staff, parents and students rose to the occasion and persevered through these trying circumstances. We were truly blessed to have such tremendous support during this difficult time.

100% of our schools were providing remote instruction by mid-March 2020. Students received an average of 5 HOURS of remote instruction daily during the pandemic.

SUBJECTS integrated into the remote curriculum:
- Math
- English
- Reading
- Social Studies
- Science/STEM
- Religion
- Foreign Language
- Art
- Phys Ed
- Music

EVERY school provided office hours for additional support.

TECHNOLOGY Enabled students to quickly adapt to remote instruction.
