MAY IS THE MONTH OF MARY

Our Lady is essentially the first physical home of God himself, and always our home. We must strive to make a home for one another: a home of peace, of love, of worship, and of focus on God.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

MEMORARE

(Prayer for help from our Blessed Mother)

“REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.”

PRAYERS

These days, our news feeds are filled with depressing messages about the devastation of the coronavirus sweeping the world. It is hard to see so much sorrow and hopelessness in the world—many of us feel helpless and wonder if there is anything we can do. God provides to those who seek Him in times such as these, to rise above the current circumstances. Problems and challenges will always assail us. It is part of the human condition. We can conquer them—and our fears— but only if we go deeper in our relationship with the Lord. And to do that we must obtain the virtue of hope. We must cultivate hope, peace, and faith amidst trials.

“If you desire peace in your hearts, in your homes, and in your country, try to assemble each evening, or as often as you can.... to recite the Rosary.

—Pope Pius XI
