Discussion of “The Living Discipleship Series” (6 week series) sample books were reviewed. People grow in their faith when involved in small groups; start small with groups and then build. Sharing your faith can be life changing.             <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Decision made to request further information from Christopher Ruff, the author, before going forward.</li> <li>b. Maria will email questions to him: 1) how to invite all age groups to participate in small groups; specifically how to reach young adults and teens and 2) how to keep them coming;</li> <li>c. Request his reply to APT before the next APT meeting;</li> <li>d. Meet with Chris Ruff via speakerphone at the next APT meeting to answer any further questions/concerns.</li> </ol> </li> <li>2. Another suggestion to use for small groups is by Catholic Charities on Social Teachings of the Church – Father will forward email with details</li> <li>3. A draft of a survey for young adults was shared by Deacon Dave and Ann Marie. Suggestions given by APT; Ann Marie will edit and send to APT by Friday. The team is asked to bring final comments to the next meeting, May 7.</li> <li>4. 10 Ways to be a Great Evangelist - what can we do to invite others? Item not discussed.</li> </ol>
Next Meeting	Monday, May 7 at 6:30 PM with Mass at the Rectory
Closing Prayer	Deacon Dave led us in a closing prayer
Observations	There was good discussion. A key point in bringing Lucas here who has great insight from the young adult point of view. We stayed on task, discussed and talked and made decisions. We’re making progress.
