Rectory update: We are now working on the blue-print/floor-plan for the rectory as we plan to build on the church property where the old rectory used to be. The St. Mary's Finance and Pastoral Councils will be working on this so that we can finalize it and then bring it to the Bishop for his approval.

Confession: Along with normal weekend confession times, confession will now also be available before weekday Masses from 8:20 to 8:50 AM.

FATHER FASNACHT'S 10:00 AM SUNDAY MASS can be viewed livestream or the recorded version on Father Fasnacht's Youtube Channel. At this time we are unable to stream on Facebook but go to Parish Website to watch.

"Now someone approached Jesus and said, "Teacher, what good must I do to gain eternal life?" He answered him, "Why do you ask me about the good? There is only One who is good. If you wish to enter into life, keep the commandments." He asked him, "Which ones?" And Jesus replied, " 'You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; honor your father and your mother'; and 'you shall love your neighbor as yourself.'" The young man said to him, "All of these I have observed. What do I still lack?" Jesus said to him, "If you wish to be perfect, go, sell what you have and give to [the] poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me." When the young man heard this statement, he went away sad, for he had many possessions." Mt 19:16-22

How do we live our life? It is very important to take time to step back and reflect on the way we are living. It is very important to articulate our top values otherwise we can easily find ourselves running around in circles being tossed about by the waves of circumstance and reaction as we merely respond to the circumstances in our life. Instead of living a chaotic life of circumstance we must live an intentional life that pursues to achieve our top values and goals in life.

If we do not articulate our values (for example: Love God and neighbor) we will not know what we are living for and we will not do the hard work to achieve it. What do we want our life to be about? When we go to God in prayer with this, he will help us to find the most important values to focus on and work towards.

God bless, Fr. Fasnacht
