PASTOR'S MESSAGE

"On the third day there was a wedding in Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Jn 2:1-5

Last week at mass we consecrated our two parishes to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I did this because Bishop Quinn consecrated the Diocese to the Blessed Virgin years ago and asked that Pastor's renew the consecration every year. So why do we consecrate ourselves to the Blessed Virgin?

God has given an important role to his mother. Jesus wants his mother to carry out a critical role in leading us on the path to heaven. It is important for us to reflect on the Blessed Mother's incredible love for us. She loves us more than we could imagine. She is our mother. She is concerned for us. She wants us to be protected and saved from the extremely spiritually dangerous world that we live in which seeks to lead us on the path to perdition. This is why it is very, very important that we listen to her words; the words she has spoken to the many children at the apparition sites in the world such as Lourdes and Fatima. Let us turn to the Blessed Mother and listen to her.

God bless, Fr. Fasnacht

QUOTE FROM MOTHER THERESA.....

One man told me: "I am an atheist," but he spoke so beautifully about love. Mother told me: You cannot be an atheist if you speak so beautifully about love." Where there is love, there is God. God is love.
