Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.”

May God Have Mercy On Us.

*By your stubbornness and impenitent heart, you are storing up wrath for yourself for the day of wrath and revelation of the just judgment of God, who will repay everyone according to his work: eternal life to those who seek glory, honor, and immortality through perseverance in good works, but wrath and fury to those who selfishly disobey the truth and obey wickedness. St. Anthony's Construction:

Beginning Thursday, May 28th, the construction to expand our church will begin. LYNN Construction will complete the job. At this point it should be called "destruction." It will be hard to see our beloved church in this state. The construction will begin on the outside and later the inside will be done. On the outside, the bell tower, the cover sitting area, and the sidewalks will be busted up and new sidewalks and foundation will be put in. The statue of St. Anthony has been moved to the front of the Religious Education Building, so St. Anthony will be watching over the renovation from the outside...and our Lord from the inside! Most of the current parking will be available, but please pay attention to caution signs as some areas will be reserved for the construction. Please pray for the smooth progression of our construction. We will keep you updated on our construction project.
