Corpus Christi Blood Drive

Our Lady Of Mount Carmel Parish, is doing a combined blood drive and food drive in honor of the Catholic Feast day of Corpus Christi. We are doing so in a combined effort with all 6 northside cluster parishes. The actual blood drive will be held on Tuesday June 28th at the parish hall at Holy Rosary from 2:30pm to 7:30 pm. The food and money that is collected will be donated to First Step Services. Sign-ups for the giving of blood will begin the middle of June (06/11 thru 6/26) - so please reserve that June time frame. Most people on medications can still donate blood. Please check the WWW.BCW.EDU website, if you have questions. One donated unit of blood, is capable of saving three lives. If you can't donate, enlist a friend or relative who can, or participate by donating food or money. Baked goods would be appreciated, and would need to be delivered to Holy Rosary by 2pm on 6/28. Hourly door prizes will also be drawn. South Eastern Wisconsin is in a blood shortage. Please help if you can, and in doing so, you would also be honoring the Feast Day of Corpus Christi (The Body and Blood of Christ) in a special way. Christ shed his Precious Blood for us, and with our donation of Blood, we can help others in desperate need. Thank You.

We Must Proclaim the Truth about the Conjugal Union to Renew Christian Culture

Raymond Cardinal Burke

June 6, 2016 (LifeSiteNews) -- Cardinal Raymond Burke has put forward the thesis that the rapid decline of western Christian culture will not begin to be reversed until Catholics boldly live out and then proclaim to the rest of society the “truth regarding human sexuality and human life.” Speaking at a conference in Britain, Cardinal Burke explained that Christians living in a “totally secularized world” are called to the “new evangelization,” which he explained means “living the faith through the practice of the virtues, as if for the first time, that is, with the engagement and energy of the first disciples, of the first apostles to our native places.” But unless Christians practice the “virtues of purity, chastity and modesty, that is, the living of the truth regarding human sexuality and human life” they will not grow in genuine “holiness of life.”

He continued: “The respect for human life is related essentially to the respect for the integrity of marriage and the family as they come to us from God. The attack on the innocent and defenseless life of the unborn, for example, has its origin in an erroneous view of human sexuality, which attempts to eliminate, by mechanical or chemical means, the essentially procreative nature of the conjugal act. The error maintains that the artificially altered act retains its integrity. The claim is that the act remains unitive or loving, even though the procreative nature of the act has been radically violated. In fact, it is not unitive, for one or both of the partners withholds an essential part of the gift of self, which is the essence of the conjugal union. The so-called ‘contraceptive mentality’ which fears life, which fears procreation, is essentially anti-life. Many forms of what is called contraception are, in fact, abortifacient, that is, they destroy a life which has already been conceived, has already begun.”

“Through the spread of the contraceptive mentality, especially among the young, human sexuality is no longer seen as the gift of God, which draws a man and a woman together, in a bond of lifelong and faithful love, crowned by the gift of new human life, but, rather, as a tool for personal gratification. Once sexual union is no longer seen to be, by its very nature, procreative, human sexuality is abused in ways that are profoundly harmful and indeed destructive of individuals and of society itself. One has only to think of the devastation which is daily wrought in our world by the multi-billion dollar industry of pornography.” The cardinal stated that the “restoration of the respect for the integrity of the conjugal act is essential to the future of western culture, the advancement of a culture of life.”

He warned Catholics to be “attentive to a false notion of conscience, which would actually use the conscience to justify sinful acts, to betray our call to holiness.” Catholics who seek holiness of life must “train” and “form” their consciences to “listen to God’s voice alone and to reject what would weaken or compromise, in any way, our witness to the truth in which He alone instructs us in the Church. Conscience, therefore, does not set each of us apart as an arbiter of what is right and good, but unites us in the pursuit of the one truth, ultimately Our Lord Jesus Christ Who is the only arbiter of the right and good, so that our thoughts, words and actions put that truth into practice.”

Burke went on to discuss the family as a “primary agent of the transformation of the culture,” focusing on the responsibility of parents as the first educators of their children. “Today, parents must be especially vigilant, for sadly, in some places, schools have become the tools of a secular agenda inimical to the Christian life. One thinks, for example, of the compulsory so-called ‘gender education’ in some schools, which is a direct attack on marriage at its foundation and, therefore, on the family,” he said.

Cardinal Burke concluded his talk with what has now become his customary remarks on the reality of martyrdom for Christians choosing to be faithful to Christ. Given the breakdown in family life, the wholesale attack on innocent and defenseless human life, and the violation of the integrity of the union of marriage in our society, the call to the martyrdom of witness is ever more urgent.

Our Sanctuary Redecoration Project:

Don’t forget to donate!

Just a reminder that we have many opportunities to donate toward our sanctuary redecoration. We already have received donations for the tabernacle, the Last Supper scene and the adoring angels for the new high altar, as well as a number of general donations for the overall project. If you have not yet made a donation, please consider doing so, in order that we can plan to go forward with phase 2 of our renovation, the painting of the sanctuary, after the altar is finished. You may donate by check or online at a link on our website, www.OlmcKenosha.org. All donations are tax deductible.

Any questions, call the rectory at 652-7660.
