

Dress Attire for First Communion

The First Communicant should be dressed in a respectful manner that shows reverence to the celebration of the Mass.

We have listed below some basic requirements and suggestions.

Girls:

- Any "Sunday" dress. White is not required, though it is traditionally worn.
- Hem should be at least knee length but not touching the ground.
- Spaghetti straps, low cut, or backless dress should have a sweater or other cover.
- Head dress/veil is optional.
- Dress shoes/sandals (sandals should have a strap or back on the heel for safety - not flip flops).
- Gloves may be worn in the entrance and recessional only, not during Communion.

Boys:

- Dress slacks, shirt and tie.
- Dress shoes and socks.
- Sport coat or suit is recommended but not required.
