

For We Are God's Helpers 1 Cor 3:9

Each year, the Archdiocese of Cincinnati invites missionary groups to speak at its parishes through the nationwide Missionary Cooperative Plan. Missionary groups share their stories and solicit financial support through the second collection.

This year, on the weekend of July 10th and 11th, our parish will welcome the Lay Mission-Helpers Association (LMH). Since its foundation in Los Angeles in 1955, LMH has sent over 750 men, women and families on mission to 36 countries. These dedicated lay Catholics come from across the United States and serve at least three years as teachers, nurses, engineers, computer technicians, project managers, accountants, pastoral workers and other professionals in mission dioceses around the world. Currently, LMH share their gifts in Ghana, Uganda, Papua New Guinea, and Honduras in the areas of education, healthcare, administration, and project management. Our speaker will be Mr. Damian Kabot who was born in Poland and served as a missionary in Bolivia and Mexico.
