Catholic CD of the Week: This week’s featured CD is Fan or Follower? Your Relationship with Jesus by Jeff Cavins. There are many fans of Jesus in this world, but we are called to be His disciples. In this talk, Jeff Cavins shares how he has come to see that Jesus wants us to surrender every bit of our own comfort to follow Him. After twelve years as a Protestant pastor, Jeff returned to the Catholic Church and became a nationally known speaker who has helped thousands come to a clearer understanding of Scripture and our Faith.

Prayer of Pope Francis for the Jubilee

Lord Jesus Christ, You have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him. Show us your face and we will be saved. Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew from being enslaved by money; the adulteress and Magdalene from seeking happiness only in created things; made Peter weep after his betrayal, and assured Paradise to the repentant thief. Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us, the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman: “If you knew the gift of God!” You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy: let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified. You willed that Your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God. Send Your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and Your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind. We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

The Move to Fixed Tuition

By now, everybody has heard that Our Lady of Peace School will be moving to a fixed rate of tuition. Members of the school board have been explaining this move far better than I can, but the pastor does need to weigh in on one point. Some families have been anxious that, with our abandonment of the so-called “Fair Share” program, people who cannot afford the fixed tuition will not be able to send their children to our school. This is not true. The parish operates a school to fulfill its obligation to assist parents in rearing their children in the practice of the Faith. The entire community wishes to help all of its children enjoy the benefits of Catholic schooling. No student will be refused enrollment in Our Lady of Peace School solely for financial reasons. Every student in the school will be receiving a subsidy because the fixed tuition will not cover the full cost of educating him/her. Parents who need additional financial assistance should first of all apply for diocesan aid (the diocese has funds set aside specifically to aid parents in paying tuition) through the FACTS program. If parents need additional help, they should talk to their pastor. No parishioner will be turned away from the school solely for financial reasons.
