Parent Corner
Express Care; Action Step #6: Invest Time and Energy

You don’t need to go on a family spring vacation to spend a little more time together during spring break. For Easter Activities, go to: focusonthefamily.com/parenting

Here are a few tips to invest your time and energy:
1. Make appointments. We all have schedules to help us to prioritize important meetings. Use your calendar to invest in your kids. The Tillman Family adds family dinner to their busy schedules. Each Sunday, everyone knows where they will be for dinner—together. Use your calendar and make it nonnegotiable.

2. Avoid distractions. When I, (Maggie) spend time with OLP’s youth, I silence my phone and often leave it off in my office. I want my actions to prove I value their time and friendship and they are each worth enough to get 100% of my energy. Almost every outside, urgent request can wait at least a few minutes. (Go get pancakes after Mass THIS Sunday and keep your phones off! It helps get them in your belly faster.)

3. Keep promises. We all have all experienced someone breaking a promise, it feels awful and breaks trust. If you can’t immediately fulfill a children’s requests, tell them when you can. Keeping your word starting at a young age builds a life time of trust.

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY
No Other Way to Conquer Evil

"Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world!" (Jn 1:29)
The verb that is translated as “take away” literally means, “to lift up,” "to take upon oneself." Jesus came into the world with a precise mission: to liberate it from the slavery of sin by taking on himself the sins of mankind. How? By loving.

There is no other way to conquer evil and sin than by the love that leads to giving up one's life for others.

REFLECTION: In Jesus' love and mercy, he took away our sins through his death on the cross. Take some time to consider what he endured for you. Consider how you can respond in love. (Our Sunday Visitor)
