Jubilee Year Of Mercy

World Day Against Child Labor
On June 12, we celebrate the World Day Against Child Labor. Tens of millions of children – did you hear that? – tens of millions are forced to work in degrading conditions, exposed to forms of slavery and exploitation, as well as abuse, maltreatment, and discrimination. I strongly hope that the international community can extend its social protection over minors in order to weaken this scourge of child exploitation. I invite all of you to pray to Our Lady, who held the Child Jesus in her arms, for these boys and girls who are being exploited through work and also abuse. Hail Mary.

– Pope Francis, General Audience, June 11, 2014

REFLECTION: It’s easy to think about the poor abstractly, but it is important to try to understand their situation and work to change it. Contemplate Our Lady as she held the baby Jesus in her arms. God is calling us to view these children forced into labor with the same reverence. Pray three Hail Marys for them. (Our Sunday Visitor)

Our Lady of Peace…Pray for Us!

Catholic CD of the Week: This week’s featured CD is Facing Your Fears by Mark Hart. Mark uses Scripture and his experience of surviving an earthquake to share how we can master our fears. He also reveals how our fears will pursue us if we don’t meet them head on. Mark encourages us to not only face the proverbial giants in our lives, but to slay them as David did Goliath, thereby finding freedom in Christ.
