Message from the Pastor
A Nag from the Pastor: Please Save the Dates...

Now that the school year has safely begun, autumn speeds by; and there are some dates between now and the end of the year we should all notice.

During the month of October the parish makes available in the gathering space, the Book of the Names of the Dead. We may write into that book the names of our loved ones whom God has called from this world to Himself over the past year. During November the Book reposes beneath the altar so that we are more likely to remember our deceased loved ones in our prayers.

On Sunday, October 16th, at the 11:30 a.m. Mass, we will celebrate the Sacrament of the Sick. People who are seriously ill or people who, by reason of advanced age or other weakness, might find even minor illnesses a serious threat to their health are welcome to receive this sacrament.

November 1st and December 8th are Holy Days of Obligation – the Solemnity of All Saints and the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. On these days Catholics have a serious obligation to participate in the celebration of the Eucharist. The parish will publish Mass times for these dates in the bulletin, but it is a good idea to take note of them in advance.

Because Christmas falls on a Sunday this year, Advent starts early – on the last weekend of November. During Advent there will be additional opportunities for receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation, especially on Monday, December 12th, at 7:00 p.m., when several confessors will be available.

People who attended last year’s Festival of Lessons and Carols were delighted, and we shall have a repeat this year on Tuesday, December 20th, at 7:00 p.m. People who have been keeping track of our Choristers – our young people’s choir – will be equally delighted to hear that they will be recording a CD the parish will make available by the time of the funeral ministry’s annual bake sale.

Finally, a warning for all the “early birds:” our Christmas Eve Masses will be at 4:00 p.m., 6:00 p.m. (I presume with the youth Christmas Pageant), and 10:00 p.m.; and our Christmas Morning Mass will be at 10:00 a.m.

Parish Alpha session – cafeteria

This week in Alpha: Week Four

“I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God so that you may know that you have eternal life.” 1 John 5:13

How Can I Have Faith?
We must not only trust our feelings, which can be changeable and may even be deceptive at times, but instead rely on God’s promises.

– “faith comes from hearing the message, and the message is heard through the word about Christ.” (Romans 10:17)
– “I am with you always.” (Matthew 28:20)
– Free gift of God (Romans 6:23).

Didn’t make this session of Alpha? We’ll be offering another session in the Spring! Preregister for the Spring session at the parish website: http://www.olp-parish.org/.

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

Little by Little
In intimacy with God and in listening to His Word, little by little we put aside our own way of thinking, which is most often dictated by our closures, by our prejudice, and by our ambitions, and we learn instead to ask the Lord: What is your desire? What is your will? What pleases You?

Pope Francis, General Audience, May 7, 2014

Reflection: In order to practice mercy, we must be open to the will of the Father and the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Just like Pope Francis suggests, ask the Lord: What is your desire? What is your will? What pleases you?

(Our Sunday Visitor) Our Lady of Peace…Pray for Us!

Prayer Line – If you have petition you would like the Prayer Line to join in praying for, please call Bunni Cosimati at 614-847-1826. Prayers are kept confidential.
