LOOKING FORWARD TO HEARING FROM YOU!

As Father Johnson mentioned last week, Parish Council is interested in envisioning with your help what our parish will look like ten years from now. We would like you to complete a short survey indicating your thoughts, opinions, and ideas. The parish office will email parishioners the link to access and complete the OLP Parish Survey online. So please watch for the email with the link and complete the survey. For those who do not have a computer or internet access, a paper copy of the survey is included in this week’s bulletin. Thanks for your input. We will publish the results of the OLP Parish Survey once we have them tabulated.

FROM THE PASTOR’S DESK

During the month of November, the Church remembers even more than usual our deceased loved ones. During October, our parish prepares to do this remembering in an orderly fashion.

- On the evening of November 1st, the parish celebrates a special Mass of Remembrance for loved ones who died during this past year. One of our rituals involves the displaying of votive lights bearing the names of these loved ones. Families who wish to participate in this ritual should register for it by following the instructions in the cabinet along the southwest wall of the gathering space. There is a special form to complete so that the parish staff can prepare the votive light. During the Mass, the family brings this light forward to the deacon, and we position it on a stand near the St. Joseph picture in the sanctuary.

- Throughout November, the parish displays in front of the Altar our Book of the Names of the Dead. This book visibly reminds the congregation to pray for all the persons whose names we have recorded in it. During October, this book will be available in the gathering space so that parishioners can record in it the names of deceased loved ones whose names aren’t already recorded there.

Please note that writing a person’s name in the Book of the Names of the Dead is not the same as registering for the votive candle for the Mass of Remembrance. The family of a recently-deceased loved one will probably want to do both: (1) write the person’s name in the Book of the Names of the Dead; and (2) register for a votive candle by filling out one of the forms available in the cabinet along the southwest wall of the gathering space.

Most Sincerely,
Monsignor John Johnson

This week in Alpha:

WHY AND HOW SHOULD I READ THE BIBLE?

“No human voice can reach human beings to the depth that the word of God reaches them. It “pierce[s] to the division of soul and spirit, of joints and marrow, and discern[ss] the thoughts and intentions of the heart” (Heb 4:12). At times God's speech is like a powerful “thunder” that “breaks the cedars of Lebanon” (Ps 29:5). At other times it seems like “the sound of a gentle whisper” (see 1 Kgs 19:12). It knows all the tonalities of human speech.”

(Excerpted from: Fr. Raniero Cantalamessa’s second Lenten sermon 2016: RECEIVE WITH MEEKNESS THE IMPLANTED WORD – A Reflection on the Dogmatic Constitution Dei verbum)
