ST. CHARLES DRAMA DEPARTMENT TO PRESENT FALL PRODUCTION, MULLEN’S ALLEY

The St. Charles Preparatory School Drama Department is proud to announce its fall production, the gripping drama, Mullen’s Alley by Timothy Mason. Mullen’s Alley will be presented Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, November 15, 16, and 17 at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, November 18 at 3:00 p.m. in the St. Charles Campus Theatre. Adult tickets are $10.00 each, and student tickets are $5.00 each. Reservations may be placed by calling the St. Charles main office at 614-252-6714, between 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

In the 1880s, Jacob Riis took a camera into the tenements and dives of New York’s Lower East Side, showing the world “How the Other Half Lives” in his famous book. Born out of a haunting photograph, this play delves into the world of Mullen’s Alley, and the lives of a handful of kids who are ferociously determined to grow and live in spite of the many obstacles in their way. With wit, anger, and ingenuity, these immigrant children carve out lives for themselves as they interact uneasily with the intrusion of Riis and his omnipresent camera.
“Master, I want to see.” I Mark 10:46-52

I think there are many times when I have been in this place. Longing to see what Jesus sees in a situation: the right decision to make, good place to turn, or clear outcome. In a (slightly odd) way, it reminds me of the show Chopped. The four chefs are given a basket of ingredients, ranging in difficulty, and are instructed to prepare a dish using all of them. I can only imagine finding a dessert that includes beets, goat cheese, quick oats, and crystallized ginger.

Yet, sometimes doesn’t life feel like a mystery basket? Different situations and talents that the Lord has given us, that might not always be clear to us. It is in these moments that we can run to Him like Bartimaeus, saying with courage, “Master, I want to see,” and allow Him to give us sight into the moments we do not yet understand.

What are the items in your basket? Take some time and ask the Father how He desires you to enter into these gifts and situations for the Kingdom.

Father, thank You for the spontaneity of Your gifts and the wide range of Your love. Guide our eyes to see through Yours, that we may better live out our days for and with You.

PSR WOULD LIKE YOUR HELP!
Our PSR program is off to a strong start! We have many eager learners and the best volunteers we could ask for. We are, however, in need of extra support as we seek to guide our children on their faith journey. We are reaching out to our parish family in search of teachers/aides to assist in our Preschool/Kindergarten, 2nd, 4th, 6th, and 8th grade classrooms. If you are a high schooler, parent, grandparent, or someone who simply enjoys working with children and want to share your love of Jesus, we welcome you to join us. Please contact Peter Richards at olpcyouth@gmail.com for more information.

Have You been thinking “How can I get more involved with my parish?” A great way is to join us for our next Hospitality meeting on Monday, November 12th at 7:00 p.m. in the Rectory meeting room. If you have questions, please contact Kathy Price at 614-506-7201 or email kmprc4@yahoo.com.

The Our Lady of Peace School Open House is scheduled for Sunday, November 11, from 12:30-2:00 p.m. Help us spread the word to prospective families about why our school is such an amazing place to learn! Come visit our school and see what we have to offer. Tour the building. Talk with staff, students, and parents. See us in action!
