SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT
REFLECTION
Today, God asks Abraham to bring his only son, Isaac, to the altar for sacrifice. Imagine placing so much trust in the Lord that you would be willing to sacrifice your own child. Abraham had no way of knowing what the Lord had planned or why the Lord was requiring him to sacrifice Isaac, yet he trusted in the Lord and prepared to give an ultimate sacrifice. Often, the Lord calls us as He called Abraham. He asks us to bear suffering and hardships without knowing the fullness of His plan. People who suffer grave illnesses have opportunities to follow in the footsteps of trust that the Lord will reveal His greater plan and will provide for all their needs, as He did for Abraham.
As caregivers, the Lord entrusts us with the task of helping provide for the needs of the sick. Those battling with cancer trust that the Lord will provide, and often, He provides us to help – through donations to the St. Peregrine fund which help with unmet needs of cancer patients and their families within the Diocese of Columbus. For more information, email socmailbox@colsdioc.org or call 614-241-2540.

CAN YOU PLEASE HELP US?

DID YOU KNOW our OLP students make sandwiches twice a month on the 1st and 2nd Fridays of each month during the school year? Paul Casper works with students the first Friday of each month and then delivers to St. Lawrence Haven.

We were UNABLE to keep our commitment for the second Friday due to lack of a student coordinator for this Friday. Won't you consider helping SVDP for the rest of this school year to “Feed the Hungry.” Please contact Bette at humphrb2@icloud.com or Mary at marypolisking@yahoo.com. If you have a student in a class with lots of parent help, this is a perfect way to bring everyone together to make a difference for adults and children. Please consider our request.

Many Thanks!

We were absolutely amazed at the turnout on Sunday after 8:30 a.m. Mass. SVDP had an amazing group of volunteers coming together to “Feed the Hungry.” The cars of our newest volunteers were loaded and on their way to St. Lawrence Haven by 9:45. Mark your calendar for the 3rd Sunday of each month after 8:30 a.m. Mass and join us.
