Throughout all of October, we observe “Respect Life Month” here in the United States. The theme that the U.S. Bishops have prompted this year is: “Christ Our Hope: In Every Season of Life.” A theme that tells us that Christ defeats the darkness and pain of life. We are called to proclaim that life is to be protected in all its stages.

In other words, Respect Life Month is a reminder for us that the Church has a voice in the world. However, the Church cannot be in two places at once on the moral scale (as we know, from the news reports on the Church scandals). Do the words and teachings of the Church match the actions of the Church?

This is the central question at this moment. Our core principle in the Church is: “from the first moment of existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person – among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life” (from the Catechism of the Catholic Church). Once anyone forgets this about the human person, regardless of what the age is of the said person, we find ourselves dealing with a Machiavellian. Essentially, it is a person who thinks he or she has authority over another person’s life or worthiness. This is completely the opposite of Jesus Christ’s inclusive message of love and turning away from sin.

May we have the courage to proclaim the beauty of life by our words and actions. Let us pray that we will protect all people inside and outside the Church.

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DOOLEY

Note Well:

We welcome Bishop Brennan to Clintonville this Wednesday October 16th as he says the All-School Mass at 8:30 a.m. All are welcome to this Mass and to meet the Bishop.

See you around the neighborhood.

In Christ the Liberator,
Father Dooley
