FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DOOLEY

Back in June, when I learned I was coming to Our Lady of Peace, I met with Msgr. Johnson. During our meeting, we had a tour of the whole campus and he was very eager to show me something unique in the church. We went to the Gathering Space and he showed me the six saints that greet you before you enter the actual Church. Those saints include: St. Maximilian Kolbe, St. Therese of Lisieux, St. Teresa of Avila, St. John Paul II, St. Pio of Pietrelcina (Padre Pio), and St. Teresa of Calcutta. Our own parishioner, Jerry Ulibarri, did a beautiful job of portraying the real emotions of these strong and holy individuals. It is no accident that the lives of the Saints lead us to Jesus Christ.

This past Friday, we celebrated All Saints’ Day. The Saints remind us that the Church is not just earthly but heavenly as well. We believe that our union with “those who sleep in the peace of Christ is in no way interrupted… according to the constant faith of the Church, this union is reinforced by an exchange of spiritual goods” (#955 from the Catechism of the Catholic Church). The Saints continue to point the way to Jesus Christ and bring true reform to the Church by their intercessions.

As St. Therese of Lisieux said toward the end of her life: “I want to spend my heaven in doing good on earth.” May the Saints give us the courage to be those instruments of God’s love and mercy.

In other news, you will find a special insert on National Vocation Awareness Week. This week is to encourage and start the conversation with our young people about the possibility that they may have a vocation to the priesthood or religious life. Now more than ever, the Church needs psychologically, emotionally, and spiritually healthy, holy and mature individuals to hear and answer the call to priesthood and religious life. Please pray for those in the priesthood and religious life that we become the servant leaders of our respective communities. Make sure to read over the insert this week.

That is all for now! Have a great week.

Under the guidance of Our Lady of Peace,
Father Dooley

THIS WEEK IN ALPHA:
Why and How Should I Tell Others?

It can be difficult to talk to others about the deeper or personal matters of our lives.

Certainly our faith in Christ falls into this category. However, telling others about our faith is a natural part of our relationship with God.

“Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope.”

–1 Peter:15

Got Questions? Try Alpha!
Beautification Day will be held on Saturday, November 16th, from 8:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. Come for an hour, stay for all 4 hours, or whatever time you can commit! Our Lady of Peace campus includes parish priest house, convent, OLP school, DeSantis athletic area and OLP Church.

How do we know what jobs we are assigned to? In the spirit of meeting our Parish needs, we encourage volunteers to be “flexible.” However, you can also indicate your preference for a particular task on the registration web site SignUpGenius.com. You will receive an email confirming your assignment. https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0949AFA92BA46-2019

What should volunteers bring the day of Beautification? Volunteers should wear comfortable clothing and closed-toed shoes. Be aware that your clothes might get dirty due to the nature of the tasks involved. Bring any lawn and gardening tools that can help the tasks get accomplished you have signed up for. Large plastic trash cans and tarps are great for moving leaves and debris. Paper yard bags are also welcome. Leaf rakes, blowers, garden shovels, brooms and yard or work gloves are always needed.

We will provide a large dump trailer for landscaping debris, and leaves, and tree trimmings. Please do not put trash in the trailers, only yard waste.

Who should we see when we arrive at the school? The Beautification Day Coordinator, Kim Lordo, will welcome volunteers and provide an overview of the morning. Please make sure to sign in when you arrive and make a name tag for everyone in your family.

Who do I contact with questions before or during Beautification Day? You may call (614) 477-1054 or email; klordo@aol.com Kim Lordo, The Beautification Day Coordinator, for any questions or concerns. On the day of the event Kim Lordo will have a list of all tasks to be completed. https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0949AFA92BA46-2019

Can I bring family and/or friends for extra volunteers? Of course! On the registration form on SignUpGenius.com there is a space to indicate the name of your family and the number of people in your group. https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0949AFA92BA46-2019

What happens if it rains or there are any other weather related issues? Beautification Day will go on rain or shine!

What happens if I want to help but cannot make it that day? Please let Kim Lordo know what job you would like to help out with and we can hold that area for you.

SERVING THOSE WHO SERVE

The next National Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS), is scheduled for the weekend of November 10, 2019. The AMS receives no funding from the U.S. Government or the U.S. Military, has no parishes for a weekly in-pew collection, and must rely principally on private donations to fund an annual operating budget of over $8.2 million.

Established by Saint John Paul II in 1985, the AMS is responsible for providing the full range of pastoral ministries available in all other U.S. dioceses to those serving in the United States Armed Services, enrolled in U.S. Military Academies, undergoing treatment at any of the 153 Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers, working in civilian jobs for the federal government beyond U.S. borders, and for the families of these populations. In other words, the AMS is responsible for the pastoral care of men, women, and children from all U.S. dioceses, who hail from all 50 States and U.S. Territories – including members of your own parish.

I am grateful to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops for its approval of the National Collection taken every three years.

Please help me continue to provide priests for the Church and the military chaplaincy and to minister to the Catholic military men and women, and their families, who are part of this global Archdiocese—parishioners and families who are from your diocese – with a donation to the 2019 Triennial National Collection for the AMS.

With sentiments of unwavering gratitude, I remain
Sincerely in Christ,
(The Most Reverend) Timothy P. Broglio, J.C.D.
Archbishop for the Military Services, USA

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS – OUR LADY, HELP OF PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

With the higher purpose of spreading a devotion to Our Lady and praying for our brothers and sisters of faith who are at risk around the world, the Knights of Columbus sponsors a Marian Prayer Program. A part of this program is to bring a Marian image, Our Lady Help of Persecuted Christians, on pilgrimage for Knights’ councils and their parishes to host. Our Lady of Peace will host this icon during our monthly, First Thursday Adoration, in November – November 7, from 9:00 a.m.-6:45 p.m. We will have prayer cards available for you during Adoration. Before our Lord, we pray for Christians persecuted for their faith and for the grace to stand in prayerful solidarity with them.

Our Hearts Are Full

The family of Tom and Katie Krug beam with pride at the ordination of oldest son, Fr. Jerome Krug, in Oklahoma City. “I would be proud of him whatever he did,” said Tom. “But knowing he chose a higher calling, there are no words to express our joy… though I hear God telling me, ‘This happiness isn’t one tenth of the happiness of heaven!’” Tom encourages reluctant parents: “If your son is thinking about seminary, tell him to go! It’s an ideal place to form strong young men.”

Families: the Foundation for Vocations

An old Latin schoolmaster had the habit of entering the classroom and bowing to his pupils before the lesson. One day a boy asked why he showed such reverence to the young students. “Because I do not know who you may be one day,” answered the old teacher. “Some of you may grow up to be presidents or generals, perhaps even popes or saints. I do not bow to who you are today, but to who you may become.”

Who might your child or grandchild become? A leader who solves a political crisis? A researcher who discovers a life-saving cure? What about a priest who heals souls? Or a brother who serves the forgotten?

Your attitude toward your child’s vocation has a huge impact. Many priests and sisters say: “Growing up our family prayed together…. We served others as a family… My parents often had clergy and religious over for dinner.”

The influence of parents may actually be getting stronger. Oprah Magazine ran an article on new research showing that millennials feel closely connected with their parents, with 77% seeking their parents’ advice on a regular basis.

If your son or daughter should express interest in becoming a priest, sister, or brother, they’ll be watching closely for your reaction. It may be awkward to bow, but in your own way, express reverence for what they may become.

“Love is the innate vocation of every human being.”
Pope Saint John Paul II
The growing clergy shortage means that priestly presence is waning in many Catholic institutions, especially high schools and colleges. Even Vocation Directors, whose job is to help young people discern God’s call, often find themselves with one or two (or more!) additional assignments. More than ever, the Church needs lay people, especially families, to encourage the next generation of vocations.

“I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.” ~3 John 4

‘I get to be the priest this time!’

Did you know that according to canon law, impersonating a priest disqualifies a man from ever being ordained? But not if you’re a little kid, of course. Moms and dads who have videos of toddlers elevating Ritz crackers as “hosts” can rest easy. (Have you seen the YouTube video of the four-year-old having a tantrum because his brother assigned him to be the deacon at a makeshift “Mass” in their living room? “But I can’t even reeeead!” he wailed.)

Children have pretended to celebrate Mass for literally centuries, and why not? It’s a way of emulating one’s heroes. Think of the third-grader in a Tom Brady jersey throwing a football, or the son of a police officer driving a toy cruiser.

Play has a deeper meaning, of course. It’s a way of preparing for the real world. And because our world needs God’s mercy so much, why not nudge your kids (or grandkids) to get out the crackers and grape juice?

Kids playing Mass at home has an added benefit: they often pay more attention at church! A variety of children’s Mass kits are available at sites like www.agnusdei.us.

Sr. Divine Grace of the Servidores practices archery at a vocations-themed summer camp in Louisiana. As a young sister in a Washington DC-based convent, she helped nationwide with various youth events before returning to formation in the fall.
