FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DOOLEY

A few weeks ago, Pope Francis canonized five new saints in Rome. One of those saints was St. John Henry Newman. He was born in England in 1801 and he would later convert to Catholicism from Anglicanism. In his life, he was known for his beautiful writings, speeches, and his homilies (both as an Anglican and a Catholic). There is a quote of his that I think about often: “to live is to change, and to be perfect is to have changed often.” Change is either met with joy or terror in our world. Jesus Christ was all about change and He challenged His followers to see that death and darkness would be defeated by healing and freedom.

For a Catholic, change can be difficult, but it also can be a moment of growth and learning. I am excited to announce that next weekend our Ministry Fair will be held in the Gathering Space. Perhaps you are looking for a bit of a change in your life. Would you like to participate in the liturgy as a sacristan, lector, server, or a Eucharistic minister? Are you called to visit our homebound and bring Communion to them? Would you like to learn more about Alpha, Walking with Purpose, the Knights of Columbus, or That Man is You? Or maybe you are called to help in funeral luncheons or the Resurrection Choir for our funeral liturgies?

Please stop by the Ministry Fair next weekend after all the Masses! We hear in the second reading during this weekend: “pray for us, that the word of the Lord may speed forward and be glorified…” We are moving forward into the 21st century as the Church. We pray that our parish will never be afraid of change as we continue to preach the Good News.

Under the guidance of Our Lady of Peace,
Fr. Dooley

Note Well: We welcome Fr. Evan Cummings, C.S.P., who is covering the 8:30 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. Mass this Sunday while Fr. Dooley is away. Fr. Evan is a member of the Paulist Fathers and he is currently serving as associate director of St. Thomas More Newman Center at The Ohio State University. Welcome, Fr. Evan!

THIS WEEK IN ALPHA:
Does God Heal Today?
God is still healing today.

The Greek word that means “I save” also means “I heal.”
God is concerned not just about our spiritual salvation,
but our whole being.
Jesus commissions us to pray for and heal the sick today.

“…cure the sick…and say to them, ‘The kingdom of God is at hand for you’.
- Luke 10:9

This weekend, we encourage you to take a poppy to wear on Veterans Day in honor of all of our men and women who have served in the military. In addition, we would like to invite you to a short (10 minutes) Veterans Day service in the OLP gym on Monday morning at 8:00 a.m. Please join us in honoring and remembering all those who have served our country.
