FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DOOLEY

The following is a reflection by Leo Joseph Cardinal Suenens (1904-1996). He was the Archbishop of Brussels-Malines, Belgium. In addition, Suenens was a central leader of the Second Vatican Council and wrote extensively on Mary, the role of the laity in the Church, and ecumenism. This reflection was written on the Solemnity of Pentecost in 1974.

WHY ARE YOU A PERSON OF HOPE?

Because I believe that God is born anew each morning, because I believe that He is creating the world at this very moment. He did not create it a distant and long-forgotten moment in time.

It is happening now; we must therefore be ready to expect the unexpected from God. The ways of Providence are by nature surprising. We are not prisoners of determinism nor of the somber prognostications of sociologists.

God is here, near us, unforeseeable and loving. I am a person of hope, not for human reasons nor from any natural optimism. But because I believe the Holy Spirit is at work in the Church and in the world, even where His name remains unheard. I am an optimist because I believe the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of creation.

To those who welcome Him, He gives each day fresh liberty and renewed joy and trust. The long history of the Church is filled with the wonders of the Holy Spirit. Think only of the prophets and saints who, in times of darkness, have discovered a spring of grace and shed beams of light on our path.

I believe in the Holy Spirit. John XXIII came as a surprise, and the Council too. They were the last we expected.

Who would dare to say that the love and imagination of God were exhausted? To hope is a duty, not a luxury. To hope is not a dream, but to turn dreams into reality. Happy are those who dream dreams and are ready to pay the price to make them come true.

Just something for all us to ponder over…..

See you around the neighborhood and have a great week!

Under the guidance of Our Lady of Peace,
Father Dooley

Sessions will begin in early September. If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Deacon Jeffrey Fortkamp at 614-578-5420 or jdfortkamp@gmail.com.
