The Most Reverend Frederick Francis Campbell was born in Elmira, New York, the second of six children, to Edward and Dorothy Campbell. He was ordained for the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis by Archbishop John Roach on May 31, 1980, and on March 2, 1999, was appointed Auxiliary Bishop of St. Paul and Minneapolis by Pope John Paul II. He was named the eleventh Bishop of Columbus, Ohio, and he was installed as Bishop on January 13, 2005.

Following the church’s Code of Canon Law, upon reaching his 75th birthday Bishop Campbell submitted his resignation as Bishop of Columbus to Pope Francis, who accepted it on January 31, 2019. His successor, the Most Reverend Robert J. Brennan, Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, New York, will be installed as Bishop of the Diocese of Columbus on March 29, 2019. The Most Reverend Campbell will serve as the Apostolic Administrator of Columbus until that time.

We thank Bishop Campbell for the many years he has shepherded the flock of the Diocese of Columbus and wish him a future full of faith, love and joy.

LENTEN JOURNEY FOR FAMILIES.

The diocesan offices for Social Concerns and Marriage and Family Life have teamed up to provide a Lenten journey for families: three ways to grow together – prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. A Family Mission Rosary can help families discover their own missions and deepen their relationships with God, Mary, and each other. The Lenten journey focuses on fasting from distractions in your home by dedicating one day of the week to a family “day of rest.” Finally, you can share your Lenten journey with members of our human family here and around the world through Catholic Relief Services’ Rice Bowl. More details can be found on the diocesan website at https://columbuscatholic.org/family-ministry-enrichment or call 614-241-2540.
