MEET FATHER SEAN DOOLEY

My name is Father Sean Dooley and I am happy to be with you here at Our Lady of Peace! I am a native of St. Nicholas Parish in Zanesville. I graduated from the former St. Nicholas Grade School (now Bishop Fenwick Grade School). I am a 2006 graduate of Bishop Rosecrans High School. My parents, Kevin and Suzanne, operate a diner (simply called Dooleys) and catering service in downtown Zanesville (near the historic Y-Bridge). My parents also coordinate the Parish School of Religion program for St. Nicholas. I have two younger brothers, Patrick and Dennis, who both live in the Zanesville area. Patrick is currently employed for Creative Packaging Incorporated. Dennis, my youngest brother, works for Genesis Hospital and he also operates a small carpentry business.

Growing up, my family held prayer and the corporal works of mercy in the forefront of our lives. That call to service always appealed to me, so I became more active in my parish through altar serving and youth ministry. My family is blessed with a rich history of vocations, which include: three Franciscan Sisters, two Dominican priests, and one diocesan priest from war-torn Lithuania in the 1940s. All but one have gone to their eternal reward. Currently, my great-Aunt Martha, Sister Frances Joseph Hildebrand, age 97, is a member of the Franciscan Sisters of Christian Charity in Manitowoc, Wisconsin. Franciscan Sisters from this community were my teachers during my grade school years.

After high school, I entered college seminary at the Pontifical College Josephinum, graduating in 2010 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in History. My graduate course work was also at the Josephinum. After three years of graduate studies, I took a year off and entered the workforce. During that time I worked for American Electric Power and John Quint Treboni Funeral Home in Columbus. I returned to seminary in the fall of 2014 and completed a Master of Divinity degree. I was ordained to the priesthood on May 30, 2015 by Bishop Frederick Campbell at St. Paul’s Parish in Westerville.

Previously, I served as Parochial Vicar of the Four County Catholic Consortium from July 2015-July 2019. This Consortium of parishes includes: St. Peter, Chillicothe; St. Colman of Cloyne, Washington Court House; St. Mary Queen of the Missions, Waverly; and St. Sylvester, Zaleski. I also served as chaplain for Bishop Flaget Grade School and was one of several on-call Catholic Chaplains for the VA Hospital in Chillicothe. After 85,000 miles on the road over these past four years, my car and I are looking forward to a bit of a break!

My hobbies and interests include: music, trying to play the guitar, history and English literature, being with family and friends, watching the Columbus Blue Jackets, and attempting to cook (I didn’t get the cooking genes from my parents, but I am trying!).

I would like to thank Fr. John for his kindness and help during this transition. We are grateful for his ministry here at Our Lady of Peace. I know that I have a lot to learn about the parish and what it means to be a pastor. I ask for your prayers as I begin my ministry as a servant leader. Know that I have been praying for you as we begin our shared ministry to the Clintonville neighborhood.

Lastly, the Parish Festival is right around the corner. Please introduce yourself as I walk around and pretend to know what I am doing! Thank you to everyone for your work on making this a successful parish Festival.

See you at the Festival!

Under the guidance of Our Lady of Peace,
Father Dooley
