FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DOOLEY

Catholic Schools Week

Today, we begin the celebration of Catholic Schools Week across the Diocese of Columbus. As a “product” of the Catholic Schools in Zanesville, I am proud of our own grade school here. According to the Vatican’s Congregation for Catholic Education, a school is defined as “a place of integral formation by means of a systematic and critical assimilation of culture.” The term integral encompasses the whole person: spiritual, intellectual, and moral. The grade school helps to set good habits and virtues for a lifetime. In addition, the word formation is key for any Christian regardless of age. We are always learning and growing as human beings and Christians.

Please pray for all of our Catholic school students, teachers, and staff members in our grade school and high schools!

Mass with Anointing of the Sick:

This year, Mass with Anointing of the Sick will be on Saturday, February 15th, at the 4:00 p.m. Mass and Sunday, February 16th at the 11:30 a.m. Mass. Stay tuned to the February 9th bulletin on the criteria for those to receive this sacrament.

Homebound Ministry:

I am excited that our newly expanded homebound ministry will be starting soon. Please mark your calendars for Saturday, March 7th at 9:00 a.m. for a training/informational meeting in the Church. I will be leading this meeting to go over the essentials of homebound visitations. This meeting should last about an hour. If you are interested in visiting our 11 households for homebound or Wesley Glen, please contact the Parish Office.

Random Spiritual Meditation for the Week:

Fr. Henri Nouwen once said that there are five lies of identity:
1) I am what I have
2) I am what I do
3) I am what other people say or think of me
4) I am nothing more than my worst moment
5) I am nothing less than my best moment.

I’ll leave it right there with this random column!

See you around the neighborhood,
Father Dooley

PRAYER FOR SUPPORT
Saint Joseph, you were yourself once faced with the responsibility of providing the necessities of life for Jesus and Mary. Look down with fatherly compassion upon me in my anxiety over my present inability to support my family. Please help me to find gainful employment very soon, so that this heavy burden of concern will be lifted from my heart and that I am soon able to provide for those whom God has entrusted to my care. Help us to guard against bitterness and discouragement, so that we may emerge from this trial spiritually enriched and with even greater blessings from God. Amen.
