MISSION STATEMENT
A community enlivened by our Blessed Mother spreading peace through our teaching, preaching, and reaching.
FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DOOLEY

On this Second Sunday of Lent, the Gospel of Matthew places us on a high mountain. The Apostles Peter, James, and John witness the Transfiguration of the Lord. Moreover, the text tells us that Moses and Elijah appear talking to Our Lord. The Apostles have a range of emotions as they experience joy, fear, and uncertainty as to what exactly was happening to Jesus. The pinnacle moment is the voice calling from a bright cloud saying: “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased. Listen to him.”

St. John of the Cross tells us in his book Ascent to Mount Carmel that this event helped humanity solidify its longing for salvation. Once the voice spoke, it was God saying: “You will find even more than what you ask for and desire... Listen to him, for I have no more faith to reveal, neither have I any more things to declare.” The first duty of any Christian is to listen to the Word of God. In essence, this is a great invitation for us during the Lenten Season. How often do we listen to the Word of God? Do we listen to God in prayer? May we hear those words in our own lives: “This is my beloved Son with whom I am well pleased. Listen to him.”

- Stations of the Cross every Friday at 1:45 p.m. (with school students) and 7:00 p.m.
- Confessions every Tuesday from 4:45 p.m.-5:15 p.m. and Parish Penance Service on Monday, March 30th at 7:00 p.m.
- The Agora: A Catholic Marketplace of Ideas continues on Sunday, March 15th. Adoration will be from 6:00-6:40 p.m. and the presentation is led by Dr. Perry Cahall from the Pontifical College Josephinum. Dr. Cahall will be discussing Pope John Paul II’s Theology of the Body. This is a great opportunity to grow and learn more about our faith during Lent! More details in this bulletin.
- Please continue to pray for the leaders of the church, our parish and the wider church during these days.

Have a blessed week,
Father Dooley

FREE BOOKS FOR LENT
Mother Teresa of Calcutta was known around the world for her work with the “poorest of the poor.” But what was her real message? What was it that drove this holy saint to live such radical charity? Her answer is simple, yet staggering... Let St. Teresa of Calcutta be your guide in I Thirst: 40 Days with Mother Teresa. Divided into seven main sections, these meditations will provoke prayer on:

- The Dynamics of Thirst
- Prayer as Thirst
- Our Lady’s Example in Meeting God’s Thirst
- Thirst in the Service of God
- Sharing in the Thirst of Christ
- Jesus as the Incarnation of God’s Thirst
- Satiated Thirst

I Thirst provides an opportunity to spend a few minutes every day during Lent with Mother Teresa and the thirst of our Lord. It provides an opportunity to grow in intimacy, and to meet the thirst of God with our own thirst for Him.
