A Short Meditation from Pope Francis on today’s Gospel

“If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that’s saying it to you, ‘Give me a drink,’ you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water.” John 4:10

Today’s Gospel presents Jesus’ encounter with the Samaritan woman…Jesus’s simple request (for a drink) is the start of a frank dialogue, through which He enters with great delicacy into the interior world of a person to whom, according to social norms, He should not have spoken. But Jesus does! When Jesus sees a person He goes ahead, because He loves….

Jesus’ thirst was not so much for water, but for the encounter with a parched soul. Jesus needed to encounter the Samaritan woman in order to open her heart; He asks for a drink so as to bring to light her own thirst. The woman is moved by this encounter: she asks Jesus several profound questions that we all carry within but often ignore. We, too, have many questions to ask, but we don’t have the courage to ask Jesus! Lent, dear brothers and sisters, is the opportune time to look within ourselves, to understand our truest spiritual needs, and to ask the Lord’s help in prayer. The example of the Samaritan woman invites us to exclaim: “Jesus, give me a drink that will quench my thirst forever.”

FROM THE DIOCESE
Consultant Position – The Ethnic Ministries Office is seeking a part-time (15-20) consultant for the African American Ministry. The Office of Catholic Ethnic Ministries fulfills a mission of building God’s Kingdom by providing education and guidance to the various ministries that serve ethnic and national Catholic communities present in the Diocese of Columbus. The individual will serve as a liaison between the Ethnic Ministries Office and the African American Catholic Community. Successful compliance of the mandatory background screening and VIRTUS “Protecting God’s Children” program prior to beginning the role of Consultant. For a complete job description and more information please visit https://columbuscatholic.org/job-openings-diocese-parish-school.

CONGRESS XIII DAY OF REFLECTION
The African American Ministry Board of the Ethnic Ministries Office will host three days of reflection this year in preparation of the National Black Catholic Congress in 2020. Attendees will need to attend only one of the scheduled days. The first meeting will be held on Saturday, March 28, 2020 at St. Matthew Catholic Church, 807 Havens Corner Road. This program will include an overview of the National Black Catholic Congress Pastoral Plan and the response to its implementation. All are invited as we develop a strategy on how to continue to support the National Black Catholic Pastoral Plan in collaboration with the Ethnic Ministries Pastoral Plan. Please register online at columbuscatholic.org/cem or email ethnicministries@columbuscatholic.org or call (614) 221-7990. Cost is $15.00, youth up to age 16, free. The cost is subsidized by the Black and Indian Grant.
SPRING “LIVE-IN” WEEKEND
Josephinum Seminary to host Spring “Live-In” Weekend: The Pontifical College Josephinum (www.pcj.edu) will host a spring live-in weekend from 4:00 p.m. Thursday, March 26, through 12:00 Noon Saturday, March 28, for young men of high-school and college age, along with men who already have their undergraduate degrees who are discerning a vocation to the priesthood. The live-in weekend is designed for participants to discuss and experience various aspects of seminary life – prayer and spirituality, academic classes, liturgies and communal life – and to speak with formation faculty, seminarians and staff. Discussions on human, spiritual and pastoral dimensions of seminary formation are part of the live-in experience. There is no cost associated with the live-in experience; however, registration is required. For more information please contact Father Michael Lumpe, Vice-Rector, at mlumpe@pcj.edu, or Arminda Crawford at acrawford@pcj.edu; both can also be reached by calling the Josephinum at (614) 885-5585. PRAYER FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS
O God of all the nations, the One God who is and was and always will be, in Your providence You willed that Your Church be united to the suffering of Your Son. Look with mercy on Your servants who are persecuted for their faith in You. Grant them perseverance and courage to be worthy imitators of Christ. Bring Your wisdom upon leaders of nations to work for peace among all peoples. May Your Spirit open conversion for those who contradict Your will, that we may live in harmony. Give us the grace to be united in truth and freedom, and to always seek Your will in our lives. Through Christ our Lord. Amen. Our Lady Help of Persecuted Christians, pray for us.
