Scripture Readings
 June 9, 2019
 Pentecost Sunday

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

The disciples were celebrating Pentecost together when "tongues of fire appeared which parted, then came to rest on each of them." The disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in foreign tongues. Visitors from many different countries were amazed that each guest could hear his or her native language being spoken as the disciples proclaimed God's glory.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Each person has received different manifestations of the same spirit to contribute to the common good of all. All members of the church have been baptized into one body because of our belief in the Holy Spirit, who was sent to us by God.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

Jesus appeared to the disciples even though they had locked the doors in fear. Jesus then showed the disciples his hands and his side; and they rejoiced at his presence. He breathed on them saying "Receive the Holy Spirit." He then gave the disciples the power to forgive others or hold them accountable for their sins.

Seventh Sunday of Easter

This weekend we celebrate the Seventh Sunday of Easter. It is part of a special time in our liturgical year — the time between the Ascension and Pentecost. The Collect (Opening Prayer) for the Mass for this Sunday acknowledges the unique reality that Christ (Ascended) is both with the Father in glory and, at the same time, present among us. Though the idea of an “Ascension” and an “abiding presence” may seem paradoxical, theologically they are actually different aspects of one and the same reality; God among us. In these last days of Easter, as we move closer and closer to the fiftieth day of Easter, the Solemnity of Pentecost, I invite you to prayerfully reflect on the glorious life we are destined to share with the Lord who now sits “at the right hand of the Father,” and how that glorious life is available to us even now through the Church and the sacraments she offers.

Catholic Heart Work Camp Youth Trip

This year ten teenagers of our parish will once again participate in Catholic Heart Work Camp. The week of July 14-20, they will be traveling to Boston. This is our third year participating in this “faith in action” trip. This summer, over 13,000 participants will serve throughout the country in different cities. CHWC provides teenagers and adult leaders service opportunities to restore homes, feed the hungry, lift the spirits of children, and bring joy to the lonely. Each “camp” is equipped with a staff, director, manager, musician, nurse, and priests to celebrate the Sacraments. Participants have an opportunity to share their faith with peers, increase their faith through catechesis and prayer, and put their faith into action by working each day in different locations and capacities. This weekend the teenagers will be present at all the Masses to introduce themselves. I am grateful to all of you for your support of our young people on this experience. Please continue to pray for them as their faith is strengthened and put into practice.

Solemnity of Pentecost

We invite everyone to wear red or orange (flame colors) when you come to Mass next weekend. Red is the color of the Holy Spirit and is reflected in the Priest’s outer vestment, the chasuble. How beautiful it will be to make the entire assembly aflame and aglow with the color of the Holy Spirit next weekend for Pentecost!

Peace,
Fr. Jared

What is the Profession of Faith?

At Mass after the Homily, the faithful stand and recite the Profession of Faith, which is the Nicene Creed. By it, the faithful profess their faith in God and give assent to His Word which was just heard proclaimed. The Creed is a summary of the central dogmas of our Faith and is the heart of what we believe and profess.
