FAMILY FAITH SHARING

The Bible has its share of sad stories and today's first reading is one of them. The account from the Second Book of Chronicles generally tries to stress the positive points of Israel's history. But here, in describing the infidelity that preceded the tragedy of the exile or "Babylonian Captivity," the author tells how the people abandoned their half of the covenant with God.

In theological language, the result is that God declares a sabbath, a time of rest for the land, until the "lost sabbaths," the neglect of God, has been restored. This history ends on a note of hope, describing how the Persian king, Cyrus, was God's instrument to restore the people to their homeland.

In Lent we examine our lives in order to restore our part of the baptismal covenant, our relationship with God in Christ. As our other Scriptures for today point out, in Jesus Christ, God brings life from death, light from darkness.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES:

Thank you for attending Christ the King, St Jude Thaddeus, and St Paul parish families. While we gather together to worship under the protective hand of our Heavenly Father, it is important that we recognize the brokenness of our society and potential harm that some wish to inflict on others. Below are instructions for a coordinated response that can keep your family safe if such a horrific incident should occur.

- Run - Getting away from violence is the priority. Leave your things behind and run away. Warn others and call 911 when it is safe to do so. Describe each perpetrator and their location if possible to responding police officers.
- Hide - If you can't get away safely, find a place to hide. Stay out of the assailants view and stay very quiet. Silence your electronic devices. Lock and block doors, close blinds and turn off lights if you are able to hide in a room.
- Fight - As a last resort, defend yourself if you are in imminent danger. Commit to your actions and be aggressive in order to stop the violence.
