As we celebrate Christ's Resurrection, let us recall that Jesus gave his life so that we might be saved from sin and enjoy eternal life. In this Easter season, let us pray for gratitude for the gift of eternal life. Let us ask Christ to show us where in our lives He has redeemed our sins and ask Him for the willingness to live in charity as one people of the Resurrection. May God fill your lives with hope this Easter Season as we pray for each other with confident faith in the truth of Christ's victory.

FAMILY FAITH SHARING - EASTER

“There is no tale ever told,” author J.R.R. Tolkien once wrote in an essay on storytelling, that people “would rather find was true.”

The Catholic author of The Lord of the Rings was speaking of the story of Jesus. Today, as we accompany Peter and the Beloved Disciple, making their way to the tomb, we might echo Professor Tolkien’s comment.

Our faith, as St. Paul tells the Corinthians, rests on the reality of Jesus’ Resurrection. We base everything on the truth of the story. But establishing that truth is not a matter of science, history, or archaeology. It’s a matter of faith. We must call upon the Holy Spirit, who is present to the Church, to assist us.

In the Easter Gospels, we hear the witness of the first followers of Jesus: Jesus was risen; they had experienced him, alive in their midst. Their testimony in the Spirit moves us to a faith-filled “Alleluia.”

We live in a skeptical age. And yet in his essay, J.R.R. Tolkien pays tribute to the power of the Christian proclamation. He notes that there is no other story which so many skeptics “have accepted as true on its own merits.”

Our Easter Gospel is a story of living faith, in which we are participants, and to which we are now witnesses.
