There are currently 26 seminarians studying in seminaries throughout the United States. The Diocese of Fort Worth provides nine years of education and formation for each seminarian at an annual average cost of $52,092. The Good Shepherd Sunday Special Collection assists with funding this annual cost. Please give generously in today's offertory or donate online at bit.ly/Seminarians or text SEF to 91999.

CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL: Next week we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Right now, over 40 percent of dioceses in the US are considered home missions because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Your support of this appeal helps ease the struggle of these dioceses. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

FAMILY FAITH SHARING - 4th SUNDAY OF EASTER, GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

How do we feel when the story of the Good Shepherd compares the followers of Christ to sheep? After all, they are dumb, and smelly, too!

Shepherding was an important part of the life for the people of biblical times. The shepherds of Jesus' time herded their flocks through wilderness, ready to defend them from attack by wild animals. In a crowded sheepfold at night, shepherds of several flocks herded together could identify their own sheep - and vice versa! Jesus' listeners would have understood the economic interdependence of shepherd and sheep - a truly good shepherd would value each and every individual in his flock.

The relationship Jesus offers us is one characterized by the dignity and worth he sees in each of us. He knows each of us by name, with an intimacy he shares with us from the Father, whom Jesus knows with the intimacy of a Divine Son. And the bottom line: Jesus gives his life for us, his flock and we want to be counted among the Lord's flock!
