CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL: Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal today! Right now, over 40 percent of dioceses in the United States are considered home missions because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Your support funds programs - such as religious education, seminary formation and lay ministry training - to build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Please be generous. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY: Thank you to the many families who so generously supported the Good Shepherd Sunday special collection for the Seminarian Education Fund (SEF). The Diocese of Fort Worth provides nine years of education and formation for each of its 26 seminarians at an annual average cost of $52,092. Your generous donations assist with funding this annual cost. If you missed last week's collection, you may donate on line at bit.ly/Seminarians or text SEF to 91999.

DIocese OF FORT WORTH 50TH ANNIVERSARY

ILLUSTRATED BOOK: Over the past two years, North Texas Catholic reporter and local author Jerry Circelli and the Diocesan Communications Office have been collaborating on the publication of a history book to celebrate the impending 50th Anniversary of the establishment of the Catholic Diocese of Fort Worth by Blessed Pope Paul VI. The book will convey the history of the Church in the 28-county part of North Texas that makes up the Diocese of Fort Worth. This book has been conceived and designed with all our parishioners in mind. The draft pages for our three parishes; St. Paul, St. Jude Thaddeus, and Christ the King, from the illustrated book are available on the parish website in the news section. The final cost of the book will be $35. If you would like a copy please contact the church office.

FAMILY FAITH SHARING - 5th SUNDAY OF EASTER

Imagine yourself in the early Jerusalem Christian community, gathered for Sunday Eucharist - and in walks Saul, well-known for his persecution of the Church. What would your reaction be?

Saul's friends must have had a time convincing the community that Saul was on their side. Barnabas was his "guardian angel," nicknamed the "son of encouragement," according to an earlier story in Acts. Not a bad friend to have if you're Saul and badly in need of credibility.

Barnabas must have been convincing, since the story says Saul was soon "moving freely" about Jerusalem and preaching boldly. In fact, enemies of the Christian community were soon plotting to kill Saul. His zeal made him controversial, no matter whose side he was on!

In today's Gospel, Jesus uses the comparison of vine and branches to describe our unity with him. In a community, the unity we share with Christ must also mean we are united with each other. The story about Saul and the Jerusalem community reminds us how important it is to affirm one another within our contemporary parish settings. We must welcome and integrate those who are new to the community. We may need to support our more zealous and outspoken members when they witness boldly. In all things, we strive to keep Jesus' command: to love one another, as he has loved us. -Franciscan Media
